Vote on County Transit Sought

Cities Will Decide If Nov. Ballot Will Get Proposals

Residents of central Contra Costa County will have a chance to vote November 6 to form their own transit district—if a resolution now in the drafting stages, receives approval by city councils.

The resolution, to be drafted by Oakland Deputy City Attorney Robert Nisbet as soon as boundaries for the district are determined, will be sent to city councils in Walnut Creek, Concord, Martinez, El Cerrito, Hercules, Pinole, Richmond and San Pablo in Contra Costa County and to Alameda, Albany, Berkeley, Emeryville, Hayward, Oakland, Piedmont and San Leandro in Alameda county.

THE DISTRICT WOULD include all of the incorporated and unincorporated areas in Contra Costa County bounded by a line extending through Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Concord, Martinez, Hercules and Pinole. Areas now served by the Key System from Hayward to Richmond, would also be included in the district. Alamo and the San Ramon Valley are not included.

If nine or more of the city councils approve the resolution to be presented to them, it will be sent to the board of supervisors of the county which has the larger number of voters. Nisbet said that this would probably be Alameda county.

IF THE BOARD of supervisors approves the resolution, voters in the two counties will have the opportunity to vote on the creation of a transit district and to elect a board of directors for the district transit system. The board of directors would include five from zones and two directors at large, according to Nisbet.

Should the voters approve the district and the board of directors, the board would appoint engineers to conduct a survey of the district and to make recommendations for the transit system.

Following the engineers' reports, a bond issue election would be necessary, with approval needed by a two-thirds majority of the voters in the district.

Nisbet explained that there would be no conflict with the nine county rapid transit plan, which is under discussion for the area. "The nine-county plan is so far in the future, that we feel that we can't wait for 1962 before some means of solving our transportation problems for commuters.

"THE TWO COUNTY plan would provide decent mass transportation, integrated with San Francisco systems, offering better service at lower rates for commuters. It would serve during the interim period before the nine-county plan gets under way."

Nisbet added that good transportation is a necessity as much as police and fire protection. "But its too expensive for one city to provide, so that the formation of a transit district is desirable."

Representing Contra Costa County at a recent meeting of the Transit District Organization Committee were Donald Doyle and Edward Larmer, L. C. Keating of El Cerrito and M. M. Snodgrass of Richmond.

A TWISTED child's trike under a car's wheels is mute testimony that children and drivers should beware at all times. During Child Safety Week, this week, a study is being made by the County Health Department on how many accidents are reported throughout the county. A study is also being made by the department on the Who, What, When, Where, How and Why of each accident. To see how this accident was caused see other picture on this page. —Sun photo by Jim Gates

Lafayette, Orinda Lead In Child Safety Campaign

If children are the elements on which an area grows, Lafayette and Orinda are apparently headed for boom periods.

In conjunction with Child Safety Week this week, Assistant County Traffic Engineer Tom Shreve has announced that "Lafayette and Orinda are competing for being the safest area in the county in the matter of child safety."

SHREVE'S STATEMENT is verified by the fact that in 1955 only two Orinda children and one Lafayette boy were involved in traffic mishaps, none of them serious.

The record of accident sterility has continued this year, Shreve said further.

Only two accidents involving children, one in Lafayette and one in Orinda, have been reported. The Lafayette incident occurred when a 5 year old boy walked in front of a slowly moving vehicle. In Orinda, a 10 year old girl was brushed by a car as she rode her bicycle on the wrong side of the road.

Shreve wondered, however, whether part of the excellent record was due to the failure of persons involved in accidents to report them to the Highway Patrol.

"MAKE SURE a report is made on every accident that happens in your area," he advised. "If a particular road has no accidents reported we won't bother patroling it too much. If it has many, the patrol is very strict."

As Child Safety Week began Monday, the County Health Department started on a week-long study of accidents in the county to determine what causes the accidents and how they may be prevented.

For 1955 the report for the county on traffic injuries was as follows:

Two pedestrians and no bike riders were killed on county roads. Pedestrians and bicycle riders injured were; between 0-5 years, 16; between 6-14 years, 17; between 15-25 years, 1.

A TOTAL of 80 injuries while riding in cars were attributed to people between 0-15 years of age, and many of these were caused by sudden stops and open doors.

This was a cause of concern to County Traffic Engineer Basil Andrews.

Said Andrews, "There are three important factors which all parents should take into consideration while a child is in the car. First, if the child is young enough and will stay put, use a car seat with a safety belt.

Second, if the child is old enough to stand the safest place is standing on the floor of the back seat and the next best place is standing on the floor of the front seat," he continued.

"The worst place for a child, acoording to our studies, would be standing on the front or back seat."

"SAFETY BELTS," he continued, "are very valuable. They start the person decelerating immediately and prevent in most cases being flung against the dashboard or windshield. They help to keep the child in the car if there is an overturning or door opening," claimed Andrews.

Shreve reported to The Sun that the danger incident of high school students walking to school is very slight. This, he said, is proved by the fact that only one pedestrian between the ages of 15-25 was injured last year.

According to the week-long Health Department study, 311 children under 14 years were reported to have had some accidents last year.

FALLS WERE the leading cause of home, school and public accidents. There was little difference in the accident rate between boys and girls.

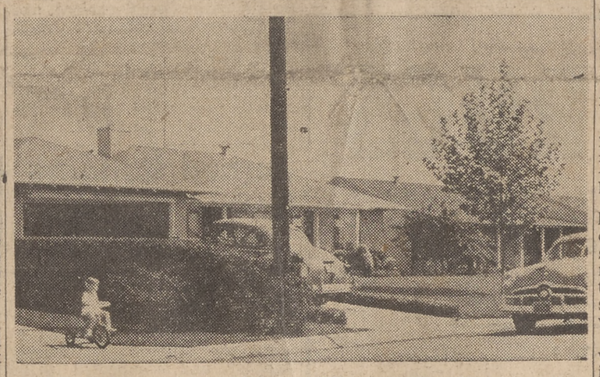
Leading types of injuries in home, school and public accidents were wounds, fractures and sprains, the report concluded.

Child Safety Week puts heavy emphasis on the elimination of all preventable accidents. The County Health Department urges a continuance of the vigilance and attention paid by Lafayette and Orinda residents to the care and safety of their children.

Miramonte Girls Attend Conference

Officers of the Miramonte Girls' League and their advisor, Miss Naomi Giddings, attended the Girls' Service Organizations conference at Pleasant Hill High recently.

Miramonte representatives included Carol Griffiths, Karen Klopfer, Bonnie Miner, Carol Cannon and Amylee White.



ACCIDENTS involving children on bikes or trikes all start pretty much the same way. A child darts down a driveway; a fence, hedge or some other type of obstruction in the driveway prevents the driver of a car from seeing the child, and an accident oft times results. Speeding in residential areas has long been a problem. County officials declare both driver and child should be better educated in road safety. —Sun photo by Jim Gates

Art Center Luncheon to Feature Food, Relaxation

Invitations to a "Garden Luncheon" have been sent to friends and sponsors of the Orinda Art Center.

The luncheon, where a buffet lunch in the garden or by the swimming pool will be served, will be held on May 16 at 12:30 at the home of T. M. Harrer, Sally Ann Road at Seven Oaks Circle.

AN AFTERNOON of bridge or canasta, swimming in the indoor pool, or just conversation and relaxation will follow the lunch.

The luncheon will take the place of the anual Exhibit-Tea of the Art Center, and will help raise money for the dramatics program launched this year.

Children's paintings, done in the Saturday morning art classes, will be displayed around the garden.

Committeemen in charge of supplies and food are Mesdames Charles Gibbs, N. S. Dodge Jr., Kerry Keresey, R. F. Tharp, Jack Fraser and J. P. Ratcliff, and Helen Jones.

DECORATIONS will be handled by Mesdames Julian Unruh, William C. Hagens and Paul Pollaczek, while Mesdames Wellington Ray, Harry Lavagetto and Tom Connally, and Joseph Biasotti arrange the exhibit.

Mrs. James Lindsay, who designed the invitations and tickets, and Mesdames H. B. Birkhead, V. W. Traverso and Tevis Thompson are in charge of tickets.

Tickets are $2 and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Lindsay at CL 4-3560 or Mrs. Thompson, CL 4-5688.

Dads to Discuss Boys' Baseball Summer League

Tomorrow the Orinda School District Recreation Program will have a meeting of all interested fathers of boys between the ages of 8 and 13 to set up a baseball league for the summer vacation. The meeting will be at the Pine Grove School auditorium at 10 a.m.. Frank Isola, district physical education director, announces.

"Any dads interested in coaching, regardless of whether they have sons in that age limit, are also invited," Isola adds.

Langridges Move To Their New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Langridge, after having lived in one house for the past 15 years, have changed addresses.

The Langridges have left their old homestead at 216 El Toyonal and moved into the new home in Lincoln Estates.

Their new address is 670 Moraga Highway.

Pine Grove Ruling To Be Made Tuesday

Moraga Growth Problems Aired At Club Meeting

"What happened in Pleasant Hill will not compare to what will happen to Moraga in the next two or three years. Moraga can be compared to a vacuum; it will draw people from all sides."

Harold Smith, first speaker at the Moraga Community Club meeting last Friday, also told of the necessity of voting in the school bond election. The election is being held to prepare for the expected influx of students in the near future.

Smith, developer of Rheem Estates, is a trustee of schools in Danville, where the problems which arise from increase in school attendance are now being met.

HE ADVOCATED constant attention to the school situation, as he told the club that Rheem intends to build a thousand homes in the Moraga area, 200 immediately.

The second speaker, Frank Draeger, owner of Wilson and Company, subdivision engineers for Utah and Rheem, explained the four routes which the State is studying as possiblities for the Shepherd Canyon Freeway.

He explained that the highway is definite through Shepherd Canyon to the hill, and from St. Mary's College on, but it is the stretch between these two points that is indefinite and is delaying Utah Construction Company's production.

THE MAPS outlined zoning area, including space for commercial, controlled manufacturing, public service space, multiple dwelling, shopping centers and residential areas.

Draeger gave credit to Harland Bartholomew and Associates, who made a study of the situation and made zoning recommendations.

DR. KEITH GOLDHAMMER, representative of the firm who made the area survey, pertaining to schools, referred to the rapid growth of the area and the expected demand for more school facilities.

His statistical report showed the average number of children to be 1.06 child per home in the area. For every 500 to 600 homes, one primary school will be required.

To every 2300 homes, one junior high school will be needed and for every 5200 homes, one senior high school will be needed, Goldhammer said. A need for 18 elementary school, at 50 students per school, is anticipated at the development peak, he explained.

Goldhammer added that the survey showed that new people, moving into the area, are primarily young people, with fair sized families, mostly made up of preschool children.

The survey anticipates that the big push for schools will begin in 1958 or 1959. The recommendation was for immediate preparation of schools to ease the expected problems.

Association Prepares For Possible Court Fight

Decision on the long-pending, controversial application of Pacific Intermountain Express Company for administrative office district rezoning of its 10.7-acre parcel at the Pine Grove is scheduled to be announced at 2 p.m. Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors in Martinez.

The County Planning Commission has recommended that the PIE application be granted.

Opposition to the PIE request, and also to any future businesses that would not directly serve the local populace, has been led by the Orinda Association, mainly through its Homeowners Committee.

THE ASSOCIATION has announced that if the supervisors uphold the Planning Commission recommendation, it will take steps for court action against rezoning.

At their meeting last week, the association directors recommended to the Homeowners Committee that it "take all necessary steps" to prepare for court action.

Mrs. Gladys Schwatka is the asosciation's legal counsel. William Penn Mott Jr. is chairman of the Homeowners Committee. He has worked closely with Association President Mel Arighi and other association officers.

MRS. SCHWATKA and Mott were among the opposition speakers at the April 19 Planning Commission hearing, which lasted for four and a half hours.

Others were Arighi, Mrs. Mitchell Farrar of Orinda, chairman of the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council; Mrs. Ritchie Ward, association secretary, and Mrs. Byron Bole.

Speakers favoring the PIE application were Bestor Robinson, a PIE attorney; C. E. Johnson, executive vice-president of the company; Frederick C. Kracke, secretary, Association for the Progress and Improvement of Contra Costa County; Harold F. Wise, planning consultant for PIE; Joseph P. Longacre Jr. of the Fact Finders, an Orinda group opposing the Orinda Association stand; Edward M. Rowland, speaking as an individual, and Edwin C. Browne of Orinda, dean of men at City College of San Francisco.

PIE PLANS to erect a $750,000 office headquarters building at its Pine Grove property, which is off the northeast corner of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Orinda Highway.

In February the association conducted a community-wide poll in Orinda, with the announced result that 3298 persons opposed rezoning and that 1460 favored rezoning.

Last June PIE conducted a poll in Orinda, with a reported tally of 76 per cent in favor of rezoning.

Both these polls were stressed at the recent Planning Commission hearing.

Library Fund Drive Endorsed By Many Groups

The Orinda Library Building Fund announced yesterday that, so far, official endorsement of the aims and purposes of the Orinda Library Building Fund, had been received from the following Orinda community organizations:

Orinda Junior Woman's Club, Orinda Mothers Club, Oak Springs Home Association, Orinda Mills Club, Orinda Country Club, Lighthouse Auxiliary — Enchanted Hills, Monte Vista Improvement Association, Acalanes Chapter, United World Federalists, Inc., Santa Maria Women's Guild, Moraga Meadows Association, Shephard of the Valley Lutheran Church, Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, Meadow Pool, Minerinda, Orinda Association, American Association of University Women

"Further announcement will be made as additional endorsements are received," Perc S. Brown, general chairman of the library drive, said.

A general meeting of all committee chairmen followed a dinner at the Orinda Country Club Tuesday night.

In addition, guests were Mrs. Bertha D Hellum, county librarian, who presented statistical and other information; Dr. Lloyd L. Farrar, chairman of the Orinda Library Board; Mrs. E. F. Wilford, president of the Orinda Junior Woman's Club, and Donald P. Krotz, who accompanied his wife, Verla Krotz, chairman of the field group for the Library Building Fund.

Rotarians Hear Service Speaker

Joseph Silver, executive director of the Northern California Service League, was the featured speaker at the regular Orinda Rotary meeting Wednesday at the Orinda Willows.

Silver told the Rotarians of the functions of his organization.

"Our organization helps people in prison with social and material problems," he explained.

He further emphasized that the Service League attempts to aid drug addicts, and is also striving for improvements in the local prisons.

These improvements would include improved recreational facilities, higher standards of living for the prisoners, and others.

Paul Pease was program director of the meeting, while Clarence Betz handled publicity.

In Mexico City

Bullfights, tacos and long siestas are on the agenda for Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Schacht, of 9 Vida Desconocida, who are currently vacationing at the Hotel Bamer in Mexico City.

Visits to Taxco and Cuernavaca will follow.

Beans in Store For Scouts and Lions Wednesday

Strange as it may seem, the ol' sustainers, beans, will be the reason the Orinda Lions will meet with Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts at Miramonte next Wednesday evening.

The Lions will host Boy Scout Troops 207 and 237, and Cub Packs 212, 32 and 211 in the out-of-doors "bean feed" which begins at 6 p.m.

There will be other attractions aside from the beans, however.

Musical entertainment will be supplied by A. P. Lorentzen and Bob Keller, with Mario "Butch" Guarneri featured on the trumpet. Musical numbers will be by Jack Schneider.

Archery teams and tumbling acts will take over after the gastronomical delights are devoured.

Raulings Simon, chairman of the affair, is assisted by a committee consisting of Roy Stuart, Tom Snow, Joe Smith, Don Hunter, James Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Navone, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lucas, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Deichler.

Cub and Scoutmasters have been invited.

Mesdames Lucas and Navone will handle the cooking.

Orinda Value Days Are Today, Tomorrow

Orinda Value Days are now here — through tomorrow.

Today and tomorrow special buys and special services will be offered by Orinda stores. Sponsored by the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, the event promises to be one of the most popular ever held here.

Orinda Value Days started yesterday.

"Outstanding values in quality merchandise are being offered on Orinda Value Days," John Ogden, chairman of the merchants' committee of the chamber, points out. "Window signs at the stores call attention to the occasion."

A SCRAMBLED WORD CONTEST is a special feature of Orinda Value Days. Through this contest, you can win a $20 cash order on any Orinda store participating in Orinda Value Days.

How? It's easy. Just read today's Orinda Sun and note the coupon indicating the number of words in the two scrambled sentences.

You will easily find one "scrambled word" in the same type face in each Orinda Value Days ad in the paper. The words will be easily identified, as each is placed all alone in each ad.

Put the words together, into two "secret" sentences — which will describe shopping in Orinda.

Then take the coupon to the Orinda Sprouse-Reitz store or to the Village Shoe Shop — or mail it to The Orinda Sun, Box 147, Orinda.

In case of ties, the award will be divided equally among winners.

ALSO Among the novel arrangements prepared in connection with Orinda Value Days are a Cinderella Contest at Al Baer's Village Shoe Shop and the offering of prizes at the Sprouse-Reitz store.

Baer has two individual shoes—not mates—each of which is 75 years old. They're from a San Francisco collection. The person who comes closest to guessing the size of each shoe will win a pair of Keds or Kedettes. No purchases are necessary in order to enter this contest.

At Sprouse-Reitz, the following prizes will be offered: First prize, a 20-piece moss rose dish set; second, a bath mat set (choice of color); third, a 19-piece luncheon set. Tickets will be given with all $1 purchases. Awards will be announced at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

Orinda Value Days Are Today, Tomorrow

Chilly Winds; Chilly Waters

Springtime cometh!

But it's been a long time coming and no one now is too sure where it is.

Temperatures last week varied from a high of 70 on Sunday to the 58s recorded on April 26 and 27. These later two days brought not only chilly winds but chilly rains as well, with a total of .80 inches liquid sunshine falling.

Since the weather-year began, 43.58 inches of that stuff has fallen.

The temperatures this week were:

	High	Low
April 26	58	49
April 27	58	43
April 28	60	46
April 29	70	41
April 30	69	40
May 1	62	44
May 2	66	45

Orindans Rib Travellers

Friends and casseroles were collected for a pot-luck dinner last Saturday evening at the home of the Elbert Waynes.

Entertainment was supplied by fictitious letters to the William Brobecks, hinting on how to travel on foreign soil and facetiously lousing up their well-laid plans for their coming trip to Europe. Fortunately it was all in fun and the Brobecks are looking forward to their trip abroad in spite of the parody of their coming journey.

After the dinner party the 20 guests and their hosts went to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center dance at the Diablo Country Club. Orindans in the party were Andrew Hartanov, the John McClures, the Fred Foxes, the Jim Davisons, the Earl Winklers, the William Brobecks and the Elbert Waynes.

C of C Donates $500 to Library Fund Campaign

Tuesday's meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at the Orinda Willows produced $500 from the chamber's treasury to help finance the Orinda Library.

The contribution was motivated by a letter from Perc S. Brown, general chairman of the Orinda Library Fund drive, which was read at the meeting by President Ned de Laveaga.

The letter, which had also been sent to the Orinda Rotary and the Orinda Lions, asked each organization to contribute $1000 to finance the library fund drive.

"This is a most worthwhile project," commented De Laveaga "and we should do what we can."

Chamber of Commerce Secretary Clarence Betz announced that there was $800 in the treasury, and a lengthy discussion on the proposal ensued.

A motion was then made that the chamber contribute $250 to the drive immediately, and donate another $250 after June 1. The motion passed.

Other business conducted at the meeting included a decision not to sponsor a booth at the Contra Costa County Fair.

John Ogden, chairman of the merchants' committee of the chamber, reported on the Orinda Value Days, which are now in progress. He urged merchants to emphasize these days with signs and displays of special merchandise and values.

The next chamber meeting will be on May 22 instead of May 15, as the Willows, the usual meeting place, will be closed for a week for redecoration.

Orinda Sailor To End 'Boot'

Antony W. Almond, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Almond of 263 El Toyonal, is scheduled to complete recruit training tomorrow at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," will include a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the recruit is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

Orinda Women Help Plan Blind Center Bazaar

Three Orinda women, Mrs. Raymond Fuller, Mrs. Paul Vashell and Mrs. John Blaney, long associated with volunteer work at the East Bay Center for the Blind in Oakland, again head the local group for the annual bazaar to be held tomorrow at the 3834 Opal Street address.

The Center, sponsored by members of the Lions Clubs Central Committee for the Blind, Alameda-Contra Cista County, is the gathering place for blind persons in the Bay Area.

The annual bazaar co-sponsored by the blind members and wives bers, provides funds for the of Lions Central Committee memyear's recreation program.

A day-long affair beginning at 10 a.m. all the usual bazaar-attractive articles will be offered for sale. Articles are made by both sighted and blind, or donated by interested persons. Booths will be staffed by both sighted and blind.

WHEEL ALIGNMENT

Having the wheels of your automobile aligned and balanced periodically is an important service function. Correct wheel alignment makes steering easier, reduces wheel vibration and eliminates uneven tire wear.

'School Can Aid Child, But . . .'

"A school is not a clinic. A school is to teach. But a school can help to identify the emotionally distressed child who does require help by those experienced in this work."

In an address to the Orinda Mothers Club recently, Harlan Lewis, child guidance consultant for the Orinda School District, stressed the point that parents cannot expect a teacher to do a psychologist's work.

Children needing help through friendly counseling can be helped by application to the Berkeley Mental Health Clinic. Local facilities are inadequate. Funds and memberships drawn from the Mental Health Week Campaign will help provide additional facilities, consultants, etc., he said.

Lewis, who held a question and answer period following the film "Angry Boy," which showed the background and family problems that caused a young boy to be a difficult student at school, serves the Orinda School District one day weekly. The National standards call for one psychologist for each 2000 students.

Parents with emotionally disturbed children can apply for help at the Berkeley Mental Health Clinic, as well as the Langley Porter Clinic, San Francisco, and the Kaiser Clinic, Walnut Creek, Lewis said..

The long-drawn out conferences required to adjust some children are generally too expensive for private psychiatric help by the average family, he added.

Burned Building Comes to Life

The shell of the building, all that was left of the Orinda Restaurant after a disastrous fire, is being revamped and given a facelifting.

Like a ghost coming alive, the building is being prepared to house the Pettler Advertising Agency, and is expected to be ready for occupation about June 1.

Alfred M. Pettler, head of the agency, of 34 Meadow Park Court, says that the new building located at 6 Bryant Way, will be one of the most modern office buildings in the area.

Among other modernistic features, claims Pettler, the office will have a top-to-bottom glass facade, a fully acoustic ceiling, and the newest type of indirect lighting.

Originally called the Orinda Roost restaurant, the building had changed hand several times and was finally called the Orinda Restaurant, before the fire struck.

The Pettler agency will install telephones in the office on May 14 and move in early in June.

Summer School Plans Announced By School Board

Under the sponsorship of the Orinda Board of Trustees, the Orinda Union School District is offering its second annual summer school at the Pine Grove School, June 25 through July 27.

School will be open daily, Monday through Friday, from 8:40 a.m. to noon. Class periods are one hour long. Outstanding teachers from Orinda and surrounding school districts will form the summer school staff. The size of classes is limited to approximately 15.

ALL PUPILS IN grades one through eight may enroll. Primary pupils must enroll in at least two enrichment courses, while upper grade students must enroll in at least one enrichment course. All pupils must sign up for at least three courses.

Application for enrollment may be made at any time prior to the opening of school; however, postcards listing preference of courses should be returned as soon as possible so that the schedule of classes can be made up.

FORMAL REGISTRATION will take place at Pine Grove School Friday, June 22 from 9 a.m. to noon, and from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.; and Saturday, June 23 from 9 a.m. to noon. Parents must accompany their children during registration.

Attendance is the number one problem in summer school. The Board of Trustees has adopted a policy on attendance that calls for expulsion of any Summer School student who is absent more than three times for reasons other than illness.

The amount of money allowed for daily pupil attendance constitutes the only source of financial aid. Without this financial aid, Summer School would be impossible, authorities point out.

COURSES MARKED primary are for students who have just completed the first, second or third grades. Kindergarteners are not eligible. Courses marked upper grades are for students who have just completed the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh or eighth grades.

The courses which will be offered in this year's summer school are as follows:

Primary Skill Courses: Phonics, corrective reading, language, arithmetic. Primary Enrichment Courses: Art, French, Spanish, nature study, physical education. Upper Grade Skill Courses: Creative writing skills, reading and study skills laboratory, general mathematics, corrective reading clinic, public speaking, typing. Upper Grade Enrichment Courses: Nature study in the High Sierras, social dancing folk dancing, the dance arts, foods and homemaking, home mechanics, drama, French Spanish, physical science, music appreciation, art, news of the world, rhythm and melody, class piano, string ensemble, orchestra and vocal experience.

PIE Dispute Will Be Radio Topic Sunday

Problems of Orinda planning, highlighted by the current dispute over Pacific Intermountain Express Company's application for administrative office district rezoning of its Pine Grove parcel, will be the subject of an 11 a.m. program Sunday over Radio Station KPFA-FM.

The program, to last almost an hour, will be a tape-recorded rebroadcast of a "live" program which was given Tuesday night from the station's studio in Berkeley. KPFA is on 94.1 megacycles.

The program on Orinda is the first in a series on "Bay Area Planning."

With Robert Schutz, public affairs director of KPFA, as moderator, the discussion on Orinda is by a panel comprising Director Paul Pollaczek and Mrs. Mitchell Farrar of the Orinda Association and Leo Alexander, chairman of the Fact Finders.

24 County BOE Candidates Invited To Speak Thursday

For the first time, on May 18, voters will have an opportunity to elect the members of the Contra Costa Board of Education.

As the opening up of offices for election could cause quite a dilemna in the minds of the voters, an opportunity to meet the candidates for the seven board posts presents itself Thursday at the Orinda Town Meeting, to be held at 8 p.m. in the Orinda School Auditorium.

Twenty-four candidates in all have been invited to speak at the open meeting.

Their talks will be limited to three minutes each, consisting of short summaries of experience and intentions.

With the voters becoming a little more familiar with the candidates, and vice-versa, the problem of electing the most proficient people to these important posts could be alleviated.

The meeting will also feature B. O. Wilson, county superintendent of schools, who will speak on "Powers and Duties of the County Schools Board of Education."

In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Charles Hanks and Mrs. Leonard Roth, both of Orinda.

All interested voters are invited to attend.

Jury Exonerates Roemer After 7½ Hour Fire Probe

A refusal to indict by the Contra Costa County grand jury last Friday effectively cleared Irving C. Roemer of any complicity in the unsolved fire death of his wife, Sonya.

The decision was the result of a 7½ hour probe into the March 17 explosion and fire which eventually took Mrs. Roemer's life on April 3.

ROEMER, 51, of 3783 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, said the jury's decision was "just what I expected . . . the past six weeks have been very long."

District Attorney Francis W. Collins, although refusing to say exactly what the grand jury's decision was, announced at the conclusion of the hearing Friday night that all the evidence had been sifted and the jury had failed to indict.

Roemer, who is chairman of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District board of directors and a prominent San Francisco patent attorney, was the last of 14 witnesses to appear. He spent 65 minutes in the closed door session answering the questions of Deputy District Attorney David J. Levy, who presented the case to the jury.

JOHN A. NEJEDLY of Walnut Creek and Robert M. Collins of Richmond represented Roemer. Nejedly said, following the probe, that "all the evidence was presented to the grand jury. From that testimony, the grand jury concluded there was no criminal responsibility for Mrs. Roemer's death."

Collins concurred in this comment.

Adamant refusal to comment by jury foreman Frank Coats of Martinez was "in adherance to a Penal Code requirement of secrecy," said Levy. He added that it should not cast any "cloud of suspicion on Roemer.

"Mr. Roemer today," he continued, "has the same status as any other citizen who has never been recalled by the grand jury. He has never been arrested and no complaint has been filed against him."

LEVY FURTHER stated that the jury has not scheduled future meetings to discuss the case, but that it could reopen its investigation at any time.

Roemer came under suspicion of having caused the blast and blaze at his combination garage and workshop when his wife, Sonya, 48, lying in a hospital following the incident, accused him of it.

She later denied the accusation to doctors who had heard her make the original claim.

THIS CONTRADICTORY complicity had been brought out at a recent coroner's inquest in Oakland. Roemer had refused to testify at this inquest, but two weeks ago, referring to the grand jury hearing, said that he would "welcome the opportunity of relating the facts to an impartial jury in the hope that unfounded suspicions and rumors will be finally silenced, and because I know that my innocence will result in my complete vindication."

Among the witnesses appearisg before the grand jury, aside from Roemer, were Inspector Norman A. Wilson of the sheriff's department, three doctors who had attended Mrs. Roemer, neighbors who rescued her from the fire, firemen and others.

UPON HEARING of his vindication, Roemer declared, "I couldn't ask for anything better."

The jury added, however, "We are unable to determine from the lack of testimony what caused the fire."

County BOE Election Is May 18

On May 18, school district voters in Contra Costa County will pick seven candidates out of a field of 24 to form the first elective board of education.

According to the rules, this "advisory group to the county superintendent of schools" will have a representative from each of seven areas.

AREA NO. 7 candidates are as follows: from Walnut Creek, Jack Shahbazian of 1549 Livorna Road, Armand Monlux of 31 Ball Road, J. Keith Pope of 1616 Almond Avenue and Mrs. Lucille Mauzy of 1704 Almond Court; from Lafayette, Allison D. Mayfield of 1024 Carol Lane, and from Orinda, V. Craig Bull of 20 Crescent Drive.

Area No. 4 has three Pleasant Hill candidates: Samuel Bradbard of 120 Coits Circle, John Scaglione of 764 Grayson Road, and George Macey of 7 Sunset Drive.

Legislation by the State of California changing the board from an appointive to an elective group, also allows each voter to pick any seven candidates in any of the districts, and he is not limited to his own district.

But the seven candidates with the highest number of votes won't necessarily be elected.

A winner will be the candidate with the most votes in each district.

THIS WILL insure each district a representative, but he could be elected by votes of "outsiders," that is, by people who do not live in his district.

Heavily populated Richmond, it has been pointed out, could not only elect its single representative in Area 1, but could decide the elections in some or all of the other districts.

Campaigning, as a result, has not been confined to single districts.

Artists Work Feverishly On Mt. Diablo Paintings

Any sunny Sunday along the strip from the tunnel through Danville, and around the loop to Oakland, you will see artists out with palette and easel gathering material for paintings for the forthcoming Diablo Spring Art Show.

Down at Orinda junction Betty Pleshe, of Concord, was seen doing the most fantastic things in guache. Another pair of Concord gals were Yvonne Herbert and Betty Beede, doing watercolor. Katy Madson, Walnut Creek, sets up in front of a well-known eating spot to do portraits.

THERE ARE MANY vantage points from which to paint Mt. Diablo. Connie Helm of Danville had a good location on a rise just south of Lafayette. Doris Whipple and Mary Rasmussen (two more Danville artists) have had a recent two man show at Contra Costa Stationers, Walnut Creek. These two well known artists find inspiration for their lively watercolors out Crow Canyon way.

Jade Fon's watercolor class meets on Monday noon to go out near Diablo Country Club on location. Other artists seen taking advantage of the Spring spectacle are Don and Gerry Yuen, students at California College of Arts and Crafts; Hiram Meulendyke, well known Walnut Creek oil landscape painter; Marion Love, Lafayette; Pearl Wille and Vivian Cook, also of Lafayette.

TWO HIGH SCHOOL students who are busy painting Mt. Diablo for the Realty Board's competition, are Judi Jackson and Arlene Risi of Las Lomas High School.

This contest sponsored by the Board offers some worthwhile prizes: $50 first prize for the best painting of Mt. Diablo, $30 second prize and $20 third prize. This contest is open to any artist in the area.

Pictures must be brought to the Diablo Art Association Workshop, May 12, between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. The winning pictures will be hung in the Bill Hayward Real Estate office during the Diablo Spring Art Show, May 15 through May 20. Awards will be made May 20, at the Recreation Center, by the board.

Orinda Boy Beats Field

Orinda product Art Siler, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Siler, 204 Moraga Highway, swept the field in the discus last Friday at the Penn Relays in Philadelphia with a toss of 158 feet 4½ inches.

Siler, 20, is a law student at Harvard University, is captain of the Harvard track team, and excels in the shot-put as well as the discus. His top put, 50 feet, 4 inches, is just four inches off the Harvard record. The school record in discus is 163 feet.

SILER'S accomplished performances on the cinders are matched by his equally competent scholastic endeavors. The National Scholar was recently awarded a Rhodes Scholarship for study at Oxford University in England.

A summary of Siler's capabilities was given by Harvard's track coach Bill McCurdy recently

"Art's an excellent captain," said McCurdy. "He is not a big man, but he works hard . . . as a matter of fact, nobody works as hard as Siler. His academic record is tremendous, consiering the amount of time he puts into track."

"HE'S DONE over 160 feet in the discus," added McCurdy. "Al Wilson, the freshman coach, holds the record of 163 feet, and expects Siler to break it.

"I'd be very happy to have 12 Silers," the Harvard coach concluded. "He's quite a guy to have around."

Siler won the Northern California shot put and discus titles in 1952 while at Acalanes High School. In the fall he played football and in the winter was named to the all-conference basketball squad. He was student body president at Acalanes, and won the school's citizenship award.

JAMES SILER, Art's father, a veterans' affairs coordinator, played football at Chico State College Art's brother was a Northern California hurdles champion.

Sports and studies don't usually mix, but Art Siler seems to have added the ingredients of perseverance and integrity and come up with the inevitable finished product . . . success.

Higher Payments Next Year for School Building

The State of California has raised the ante on school building loan repayments by nine Contra Costa County districts, according to County Superintendent B. O. Wilson. He said today that in most instances the payments will double next year and in one case —San Pablo School District — will quadruple. The increase is due, he added, to the 35 per cent raise in the county's assessed valuation enforced by the State Board of Equalization.

Wilson predicted that a tax increase may be necessary in some districts as a result of the larger repayment rates.

The nine school districts qualify under the state building loan program to receive state loans for school construction for which local funds are inadequate. Assessed valuation is the chief yardstick for judging adequacy.

The program, financed by state bond issues, was inaugurated to help relieve the acute shortage of classrooms resulting from the increased birth rate and the migration of new residents to California.

Amounts to be repaid by the individual school districts are withheld from the apportionments due the schools for meeting operating expenses. Amounts to be withheld from Contra Costa County school districts next year are listed after repayments this year, as follows:

District	1955 Repayment	1956 Repayment
Alamo	$ 6,596.15	$12,825.82
Danville Union	11,850.90	22,741.32
Walnut Creek	37,263.21	66,479.91
Lafayette	31,558.82	56,317.90
Mt. Diablo Unified	124,652.58	247,442.12
Oakley Union	3,057.14	8,058.47
Pinole-Hercules Union	13,119.68	28,712.95
San Pablo	10,868.40	43,951.55
Sheldon	2,901.63	6,070.79

Stevenson WC Visit Canceled By Barkley Death

Adlai Stevenson attended the funeral of Senator Alben Barkley yesterday at Paducah, Ky., instead of visiting Central Contra Costa County as previously scheduled.

The sudden death of the former vice-president of the United States forced cancellation of plans for Stevenson to be at Walnut Creek City Hall yesterday morning.

However, the candidate will go from Paducah to Los Angeles, to pick up his California schedule. His visit to this state will spark a number of events in this area designed to further his campaign for the presidency.

The Claremont Hotel in Berkeley will be the setting for a social fund-raising affair next Friday from 5 to 7 p.m. Mrs. James Benney and Mrs. Harold Walters, both of Orinda, are co-chairmen for the event, which is sponsored by the Stevenson Campaign Committee of Contra Costa County.

According to Mrs. Benney, "The affair at the Claremont promises to be one of the gayest gatherings planned for this election year. The party will be held in the Horizon Room, and judging from ticket sales so far, we are assured of a capacity crowd; in fact, it looks like a sell-out by early next week."

On Tuesday there will be a rally in the Richmond Auditorium, at which Stevenson will be present, according to William McKee, area chairman. This will be preceeded by a cocktail party for Stevenson, which will be held at the El Cerrito Club.

There will be no admittance charge for the rally. Further information about the cocktail party may be obtained from local Democratic Club members.

Plans are also underway for a Stevenson Jamboree, scheduled for the Lafayette Town Hall the first week in June.

Mineral Society Plans Meetings

The Contra Costa Gem and Mineral Society will hold regular meetings the second Friday of each month at 8 p.m. at the Walnut Creek Women's Club, it was announced.

The operating center will be located on Pleasant Hill Road near Highway 24.

This year's first Training Cruise was held April 20-21. The crew spent Friday night at the Crockett Sea Scout Base and on Saturday morning, after an early breakfast, cruised to San Francisco to inspect the Marine Museum and the San Francisco Sea Scout Base.

The biggest event of the season will be the "Spring Bridge of Honor" tomorrow at Acalanes High School. The "Seawolf will be the host ship.

THE SEA SCOUT Committee of the Lafayette Lions Club, headed by Mr. A. E. Ruediger, will help the Ship's Officers and Crew.

To Lafayette will come 17 Ships, from Antioch, Pittsburg, Concord, Martinez, Crockett, Orinda Berkeley, El Cerrito, Albany, Richmond, El Sobrante, San Pablo, and San Francisco.

The Bridge will be followed by a semi-formal.

Booming Business

In the state of California business activity during February, like that of the United States, continued at the high levels of recent months. The index of business activity for February rose to a record high of 198% of the 1947-49 average. This is one point above the revised January level and 11% above February 1955. Bank debits in February were 184% of the 1947-49 average. This figure was 3 points below January's record high and 12% above that registered in February, 1955

Aahmes Shrine officials will participate in the annual voyage to Hawaii, with Potenate Daugherty at the head of the party only a week after the Contra Costa Shrine party.

Final plans were outlined recently in a meeting at the Monument Bowl.

Ernest Dreyer of Danville received a report of the advance ticket sale and a record attendance is anticipated, he said. Thomas Hazlett, chairman of the seatoig arrangements, asked for groups to notify him if they wished table reservations.

Secretary Frank Kupper of Walnut Creek, former President Dick Hansen, Walnut Creek; Howard Weeks, Jack Brown, Rheule Weeks, Jack Brown and Rheule Reitze are in charge. Hawaiian and sports clothing will be worn and a program of music by Henry Gallagher and his orchestra will be featured.

The announcement was made by Paul Dalzell, secretary, who with his two brothers, Wayne, vice-president, and Alfred, treasurer, now run the business started by their father, Clyde Dalzell.

Moving or installing everything from safes to cyclotrons, heavy machinery and equipment of all kinds in factories and institutions, or relocating bridges, buildings or even an entire town are all jobs handled by the Dalzell Company.

430-Acre Tract Considered for County Park Site

Members of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council and other interested persons explored for a possible park site a 430-acre tract of land in hills close to Walnut Creek and Lafayette last Saturday.

C. J. Duncan of Oakland, owner of the property, has offered to sell the land to the county. He conducted the tour.

The most prominent feature of the area is the large heavily-wooded valley with large oak and bay trees, some estimated at 600 to 900 years old.

The topography and plentiful natural growth in the area would make it particularly suited for riding, hiking, picnicking and nature study, council members said.

The area immediately adjoins the new 65-acre Girl Scout camp on the southeast and the Briones area on the north west. The Briones area has been considered by the county for purchase from EBMUD as the first large county park.

The following members of the Park Council attended the tour: Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Burton of Walnut Creek, Mr. and Mrs. William Drake, Mrs. John P. Schally of Canyon, John B. Cuno of Kensington, Ralph Becker and Edward Clay of Pleasant Hill and Bruce Chamberlain of Concord.

Others were Ralfe Miller and Mrs. Howard Adams of the Contra Costa County Park Commission, Mrs. Ernest Martin and Janet Martin of the Richmond area Girl Scouts, and Michael Kiely, superintendent of the Pleasant Hill Park, Recreation and Parkway District.

Press Problems Will be Told At St. Mary's

Participation from eight Western states will highlight the 24th annual Western Catholic High School Press Convention to be held May 12 on the St. Mary's College campus.

Papers from 45 high schools from as far away as Monanta, Colorado, Washington and New Mexico have been entered. Delegates will attend talks on common high school journalistic problems by Bay area newsmen and seminars conducted by members of the St. Mary's publications, the Collegian, the Gael and the Phoenix, according to convention chairman Thomas Donahoe of San Mateo.

Four of the five expected guest speakers have already accepted the covention invitations.

Representing Contra Costa County journalism will be Herman Silverman, publisher of The Sun. He will consider the suburban publications problem.

Others are Fred Braue, writer of the Oakland Tribune's "Daily Knave," who will speak on column writing, and Leo A. Cohen, Tribune photographer, who will present an illustrated talk on press photography.

Richard Hafner, news editor of the Hayward Daily Review will be the luncheon speaker.

A scholarship examination will be given for high school senior boys and trophies will be awarded for journalistic excellent, photography and individual writing.

RITES OF SPRING

Things are moving fast in this neighborhood — weeds growing, birds building nests above porch lights, spring housecleaning, flowers flooming, garden planning, WEEDS GROWING—

Some of our "fishing" friends spent the weekend in Jacksonville, Calif., trying their luck, which wasn't too bad. Mr. and Mrs. Ruper Trinidad and son, Robert, of Jonas Hil Road, Tom and Jeanna Carroll, formerly of Carroll's Ranch, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Bing Franklin and sons, Roger and Donnie, of Larch Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Day of Orinda, left early aturday morning and drove to Jacksonville, where they spent two beautiful days, fishing in the Tuolumne River.

This was the last weekend of civilianhood for Robert Trinidad. Robert, who served the past three years with the Walnut Creek Unit of the National Guard, and who leaves with the rank of sergeant, will report to Richmond to enter the services of the United States Army. To date, he doesn't know where he will be stationed.

Bill and Margaret Weed, of 249 Rheem Boulevard, spent the weekend in Monterey visiting Margaret's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Teel, who have bought a new home close to the ocean, toward Carmel. They report a thoroughly enjoyable time, with beautiful weather, even though fog threatened several times.

Dudley Davis, who resides at 253 Rheem Boulevard, is back home after a week away. Dud, who is Chief Engineer at the General Electric Lamp Company in Oakland, the only plant of its type in the West, flew via American Airlines to the Middlewest, where he attended the Larg Lamp Engineers Meeting in Youngstown, Ohio.

LAMP LIGHTING

During his visit, he made a tour of five other factories in Cleveland and Warren, Ohio, and St. Louis, Missouri. Of special interest was his tour of the factory in Cleveland, where they manufacture the largest and the smallest lamps in the world. The smallest one, the Grain of Wheat, is just exactly the size of a grain of wheat, while the largest is a 75,000 watt. Imagine the light bill with that one!

Dud arrived home in time to help the Davids' youngest daughter, Jackie, celebrate her fifth birthday Sunday. Enjoying the pretty pink cake and ice cream, were nine little friends, who had a fine time playing games and winning prizes.

Report from Tom Carroll, Chairman of Arrangements for the Comunity Club May party: "Details are being worked out and members will be informed as soon as plans are definite." Watch this column for further details, next week.

Word comes from Irene Ferreira, Den Mother of the Cub Scouts in Moraga, that the trip to Stockton last Sunday was a real success. Seventeen Cub Scouts and one Boy Scout went. They were attended by three adults, Irene Ferreira, Will Williams and Mrs. Williams. Lee Read of Moraga helped furnish transportation to and from the train. The boys had a special treat, a complete tour of the Zephyr, with demonstrations of all the workable parts.

Since I wrote about the two candidates for School Trustee, two more have signed up. To keep the record straight, here is a bit of information about Ed Bisiar and Ray Devin.

BIGRAPHICAL BITS

Edward J. Bisiar, 36, lives off of Larch Road with his wife, Florence, and their five children. They started building their home while Ed was still a student at St. Mary's, from which he graduated in 1953. Prior to his schooling, he served for seven years in naval aviation, being discharged a lieutenant. Florence also served during the war, as a navy nurse for four years. The Bisiars' oldest child, Eddy, is in the first grade and the other four are still at home.

Ed is at present an educator at a school in Oakland. Before that, he was a probation officer in Alameda County.

F. Ray Devin, 48, wife Mirian and three girls, two of whom are in high school and the youngest in elementary school, owns his home on Jonas Hill Road. They have resided in Contra Costa County for 16 years, eight of them spent in their present location.

Ray graduated from the University of California in 1928 as an engineer. However, real estate is his calling and he is now associated with Harold Smith, developer of Rheem Estates.

Don't forget, May 18 is the date!

At the Community Club meeting last Friday night (by the way it was a very good meeting), Dr. Goldhammer of Stanford Associates had with him as guest Dr. Diaz of Bombay, India, who is a graduate student at Stanford. Dr. Diaz said he had read in the paper of a "town meeting" in Moraga, and came to it to "observe Democracy at its best."

Bid-a-Bucks Await You!

Now under way at Rheem Center and Clark's Market are preparations for the "Bid-a-Bucks" auction — preparations in which you can participate.

For each dollar you spend at Rheem Center stores until June 14 you will receive a "Bid-a-Buck."

These "Bid-a-Bucks" are all you'll need in order to bid for the $2000 worth of valuable merchandise to be auctioned off June 14 at Rheem Center. No money will be necessary.

THE MANY ITEMS to be auctioned off are now on display in the lobby of Clark's Market.

At the same time that all the Rheem Center merchants are they're offering you numerous special buys.

Beta Nu Woman Will Attend State Convention

Hetty Johnson, guidance consulant of the Mt. Diablo School District and newly elected president of the Beta Nu Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, the International Honor Society for Women in Education, will attend the society's State Convention this weekend in Pasadena.

Mrs. Ruth Martin, special education consultant for the Castro Valley Schools and state parliamentarian for Chi State Delta Kappa Gamma, will also be in attendance.

Over 500 members are expected to gather for Delta Kappa Gamma's 20th State Convention.

Mrs. Edna McGuire Boyd, international president of Greencastle Indians will be the annual banquet speaker using the topic "I Face the Future." She will discuss the challenge to educators who must meet immediate needs for teachers and buildings, as well as prepare youth of the future.

Another speaker will be Dr. Wolcott A. Treatt, associate professor of psychology at San Diego College, who will discuss some of the problems of self-realization faced by educated women today.

Lafayette members of Beta Nu Chapter include Mrs. Ruth Andersen, kindergarten teacher at Vallecito School; Alice McMaster, curriculum consultant, and Mrs. Graylis Vossler, principal of Vallecito School.

Parents Elect Club President

Frenk L. Dees of Lafayette will take over the presidency of the Acalanes Parents Club next year.

At a meeting of the club at the high school last week other officers elected were: Mrs. George Eberhart, Orinda, vice-president; Mrs. Marshall Shapiro, Orinda, recording secretary; Mrs. Karl Paulding, Lafayette, corresponding secretary; Howard Laney, Lafayette, treasurer; Melvin Strubrideg, Lafayette, auditor; and Mrs. John Rinne, Orinda, parlimentarian.

"The new board and committee chairmen to be appointed by Mr. Dees will meet with the present board at the high school on Monday, June 4, and will formally take over their duties at the beginning of the school year in September," said Mrs. John Rinne, this year's president.

St. Mary's Honors Lafayette Student

Philip Leitner of Lafayette is on the honor roll at St. Mary's College.

Leitner, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Josef Leitner of 3615 Mosswood Drive, is a 1953 graduate of St. Mary's High School of Berkeley. He is a junior biology major.

Nursery School Seeks Leaders To Fulfill Need

Applications are now being taken by Lafayette Nursery School for the position of assistant director of the school. Persons qualified, and available for part-time employment, may write to Miss Esther Noland, Lafayette, P. O. Box 422, or phone Mrs. Joseph Lorber, AT 3-2571, or Mrs. Henry Swab, AT 4-4216. Applilations should state educational background and experience.

This cooperative nursery school has, in its two years of existence, proven the great need for preschool education and play facilities in this community.

Those who were instrumental in its beginning have been most gratified by the local response. A third session was taken on during this past year to envelop those children who are required to stay out of kindergarten for a full year due to the lack of months or days of the required age.

This was undertaken cautiously, but has proved so successful it is now being expanded to the full capacity allowed by the license issued annually by the Department of Social Welfare.

Those interested in obtaining further information pertaining to the school may contact Mrs. Conrad Rasmussen, membership chairman, CL 4-5020.

Club's Sale Provides $700 For Scholarship

Acalanes Parents Club's recently conducted "mythical cake sale" will provide a fund of over $7000 for scholarships for Acalanes students, announced Mrs. Linwood Clark, ways and means chairman.

The Parents Club each year gives scholarships to several deserving Acalanes students on a basis of activities, aptitudes, and needs, as well as scholastic achievements. The students are selected by a faculty committee appointed by Acalanes Principal Stanley Walgren.

Formerly the Parents Club conducted a cake sale at the school, but for several years the club has asked for donations of a dollar from parents for "mythical cakes" for the scholarship fund, said Mrs. John Rinne, president.

Canyon Callings...

By GLADYS SHALLY, DRake 6-4674

WHO DUNNIT?

Mystery: Recently some varmint has been a-shootin' up Canyon. Two days in a row the hills echoed and re-echoed with the blasts of a high-powered rifle—though no damage has been discovered.

Coming from an area somewhat near where EBMUD workmen were demolishing a house, there were dark hints by residents that the workmen were responsible. Then it was learned that the same workmen had been muttering that the Canyon people were shooting around them!

Who done it?

ANIMAL STORY

Tail-less animal story: Last December brother gave his younger sister a surprise Christmas present—a guinea pig. (So called because they did not originate in Guinea and are not pigs.) It was a noble gesture on his part, as "Josephine" was his cherished pet—until its upkeep became a chore.

As time went on, sister decided Josephine was lonesome and inveigled her parents into buying "Junior," a long-haired cavy. This took some inveigling, her parents having read "Pigs Is Pigs."

Again time went on—one month, two months, then came the startling discovery. As told by Sis: "Come quick, Junior has three babies—he is a mother."

Needless to say, Josephine is now called "Joe."

Little guinea pigs are born wide-eyed and vigorous—in three weeks or less they are weaned. Let's see now, how did "Pigs Is Pigs" end?

HOMESTEAD SHIFT

Canyon bids adieu to the Wells family this week, when they will move into their new home in Walnut Creek. Roy Wells is Cubmaster for Canyon-Moraga Pack 57. His wife, Barbara, was a Camp Fire Girl leader until recently.

Sandra and Randy will continue at Canyon School until the term is ended, commuting daily with their pricipal, Walter Hambleton. Young Barbara now attends Acalanes High School. We not only will miss the Wells family, we will also miss their friendly house.

Mr. and Mrs. William Drake and Yours Truly were among the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council members who were conducted on a hiking tour of property adjacent to Briones Valley by C. J. Duncan of Oakland, the owner.

Although the land (about 430 acres) is desired by real estate developers, Mr. Duncan would rather it be preserved in its natural state as a park, and has offered it for sale to the county, time at Canyon School until the

Valley View Hullabaloo

By DOROTHY PATTERSON, AT 4-4195

THE SLINGS AND ARROWS

We in Valley View cherish our association members, in particular, the ones who have paid their dues. It was just such a one with whom I had had a lengthy telephone conversation the other day; the purpose of her call being to share some happy facts with me and to remind me of a slight oversight!

After hanging up I prepared to get my notations straightened around preparatory to publication when my good friend and neighbor Mrs. Panetela Scazzafava came in looking very disturbed and unhappy. While all this information was still fresh in my mind the thought occurred to me that perhaps a bit of diversion would help cheer her up, so I said, "Sit down, Scoz, and let me fascinate you."

First off, I asked her if she knew our neighbor Howard Wallace, who had worked for Standard Oil Company for 30 years and who is going to be honored with a four week vacation this year. She confessed that she doesn't know him and since I don't either I decided to use a different approach.

After asking her if she knows Gloria Church, while knowing perfectly well that she does, I proceeded to tell her that Gloria's name had been suggested to me for honorable mention for her cheerful cooperation as a Bluebird co-leader.

"My grapevine has it that Gloria never complains and this really is unusual when it comes to news; but how can I keep a column going if everybody is mentioned honorably? All my buddies are just waiting for something HOT to break and I surely hope it waits until Herm and Eleanor Silverman take their vacation because Herm says this is a small town and you just can't print—."

I could see I wasn't coming through to her.

My notes indicated that ballerina Roxanne Shine had won a Blue Ribbon Award in a 4H Amateur Contest in Martinez recently and that proud mother Lily had made Roxanne's outstandingly beautiful costume and had dyed the shoes to match. The Shines really shine when it comes to talent and I wanted an opinion on how to write it up attractively but Mrs. Scazzafava just was not the one to ask at the moment. I altered my strategy.

"If you were writing, Scoz, how would you tell your readers that Pamela Church, Kathy Kirchner and Mary Lee Wade in Gloria's Bluebird Swarm went on a tour of the local bakery, a doll hospital in Walnut Creek and attended a roller skating party?"

She didn't answer but she was giving it some thought, which was encouraging, so I continued with "These excursions have been known to create ambition in the hearts of children which causes me to wonder just how many of those lovely, refined and genteel ladies in the roller races on TV started out as Bluebirds. Wouldn't it be horrible if your—."

She interrupted me with, "I heard where Mary Lee Wade won first prize for a cartoon coloring contest in the Lafayette Sun around Easter; which means she has $3 free after taxes." Mrs. Scazzafava's good humor was beginning to surge forward with alacrity, I could tell; but it didn't last long.

"Again I tried to shake her sad reverie with, "Have you ever seen 3 year old Kim Hansen in that huge dilapidated hat that makes him look so ominous? His holsters and boots must be pretty heavy because he doesn't get around much; but the neghbors say he really looks pretty deadly if he can look at all from under that oversized hat. He's adorable."

No answer.

After mentioning that Lourania Wade must be a very patient person because she planted 150 pine tree seedlings to aid her soil conservation problem, there was only one last resort at my command.

"Mrs. Scazzafava," I said demandingly, "did you know that Molly and George Monheit are bird watchers? No doubt George has watched a few tomatoes on the side, too; but I'll bet they have plenty of trouble with all those chickens that hang around. Chickens can be a detriment to yard work, also. Especially the kind of chickens that hang around Kirby's pool and subathe; but Molly says—."

Mrs. Scazzafava sighed heavily share her problem would perhaps just wasn't in all this profound theorizing so it took little persuasion to convince her that to sare her problem would perhaps be of help to both of us. My nerves had shattered under the strain.

She looked at me soulfully and said, "Well, I was up at Pat and Munson Everett's for dinner last night and I noticed in the front hall a famly crest with the name Morrow on it. Shows real class, you know what I mean; I'll bet they come from a long line of people. What luck!—the only crest in our family is in the bathroom and comes from a tube in a long line of fluoridated paste."

Study Under Way On Community, School Problems

Two important problems are currently under study by a committee comprised of representatives of the Health Committee of the Orinda Union School District, community doctors and a school board representative.

The problems, which were brought under surveillance at a joint meeting April 11, arfe:

1. That of present communicable disease policies in the schools, including a policy of excluding children from school.

2. Identification of common problems between school and community.

The meeting stressed the deep concern of these problems to both the school and the community.

OIL CAPACITY

The average 1955 automobile has a smaller crankcase capacity for oil than the average 1941 automobile.

Acalanes Trustees Award Construction Contracts

Acalanes High School District trustees, meeting recently awarded the following contracts:

1. Construction at Las Lomas High, Walnut Creek, will include a craft shop, electric shop, mechanical drawing room, two classrooms and audio-visual quarters.

This will consolidate the instruction areas for the school's industrial arts program and provide space for two additional classrooms. Work will cost $81,427 on the lowest of six bids, by Western Empire Construction Company of Concord.

2. PURCHASE of two large-size buses for $30,100 from Gillig Brothers by the Orinda and Lafayette Elementary Districts which share the high school transportation facilities.

3. Construction of permanent 1700 capacity bleachers at Las Lomas by Beatty-Safeway Company of San Francisco at a cost of $18,950 to bring the total Las Lomas athletic field seating to 3100. Field lighting facilities have been installed there.

4. Purchase of some $18,000 in furniture from several furniture firms for all of the district schools, but primarily for Las Lomas and Miramonte.

Trustees heard the district architect report that current Miramonte and Las Lomas improvements are progressing and will be completed in time for school in September and that new district administration offices would be ready for occupancy this June.

Board members approved final plans for the installation of stage lighting facilities in the Miramonte gym and construction of a multi-use room, parking space, landscaping, tennis courts and athletic field turfing at Miramonte.

All but the multi-use room which will serve as a cafeteria, small theater and house the school music department, to be completed by the end of this summer.

TRUSTEES APPROVED the adoption of new text books from the State Approved list for district courses in English, social studies, science and French, and called for bids for outdoor portable bleachers to be built at Miramonte.

The district also decided to employ an additional district building inspector for construction at Las Lomas and agreed to pay pro-rata the excess costs for Acalanes District students who may attend the Mt. Diablo District summer sessions this summers.

CRANKCASE SLUDGE

Crankcase sludge accumulates much more rapidly in an automobile in winter than during summer because of vapor which forms on the cylinder walls.

Ths is why, more frequent flushing of the crankcase in winter is advisable.

Sewer District To Open Office Bids on May 10

Bids for the proposed Central Contra Costa Sanitary District office building will be opened May 10, it was announced at the April 19 meeting of the Board of Directors of CCCSD.

Final cost estimate of the administrative building to be located on Springbrook Road in Walnut Creek is $116,300. The cost of the building has brought about concern on the board. Previous bids have been far above the figure estimated by the Sanitary District and present plans may be too elaborate to expect such a figure, according to board members.

The district has sold its present office site and must leave the building by September 1.

Richard Mitchell, one time planning and zoning committee chairman of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council, suggested to the board members the District halt further connections to new homes and buildings after July 1 and stop long enough to repair flood damage and repair sewerage facilities in the District.

The board did not act on Mitchell's request.

Orinda Girl Gets Scholastic Honor

Carol L. Rueckel, 6 Los Altos, Orinda, was honored for scholastic achievement at the president's convocation of Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wis.

Miss Rueckel, graduated last June from the Marquette College of Journalism, had the highest average in her class for a four year period.

Marquette customarily honors class leaders at a convocation held in the first semester. This year's convocation, originally set for December, was rescheduled as a part of Marquette's 75th anniversary observances.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

It's easer to stay home

GETTING AWAY FROM IT ALL . . . There's much to be said about the "getting away" part of that familiar phrase. By the time most of us get started to getting off to where we're going, we're quite ready to get back to what we were getting away from, isn't that right?

We all have problems that confront us when we decide to duck our domestic duties for a few days of play or hubby hollers "Convention, Come Along!". And don't you just wonder when you're finally spreading your wings, for take-off, "Is it REALLY worth the effort?"

THE NITE BEFORE our departure for a recent long-anticipated wknd. found us most unglamorously nursing a swollen eye (the result of an untimely insect bite), madly packing suitcases for five people incl. one for the bird who was being boarded w/neighbors, and hastily scrawling reams of notes to one and all, the milkman, tree man, etc.

Tucked inside our oldest boy's suitcase sent to a neighboring household were lengthy instructions on the daily care and feeding of 1 collie dog, 3 cats, 3 kittens, and explicit clues as to where he would find the kibble, canned milk, cat food, canopener, etc. Another similar note went to our neighbor's nice dghtr. who would check to be sure our son had remembered everything. Still another note to another older neighbor child who would check to see that SHE had checked!

IT WAS A FOOLPROOF SYSTEM, but the kennel and petshop would have been cheaper in the long run. All those notes took an awful lot of paper and certainly got confusing!

With the kids finally off to kind friends and family, do you try to leave things as shipshape as possible for a cozy homecoming and then work so hard for a few hours before departure that you'd almost prefer to just stay home and enjoy the blissful solitude and rare treat of a tidied-up house?

As it always turns out, the peace and fun of being away, after FINALLY getting there, completely rejuvenates us. But on arriving home, the same old tired feeling takes over. We're back to grim reality until the next try and we hope YOUR leavetakings are less troublesome and wearing than ours. But we'll bet NOT much rifferent! That's Life!

Damsels drooled over Island Bloom

Dorothy Barden was down to her last orchid from the Islands when she and Lance joined other Therapy Unit Presidents and Board members for dinner and coctkails preceding the All-Unit Therapy Dance at Diablo Sat. nite for the benefit of the Therapy Bldg. Fund.

From Orinda at the early dinner gathering, besides the popular Bardens who were just back from two weeks in Hawaii, were Tanager President Eileen Juchter and her husband Frank (Eileen's arm in a cast from a recent second breaking), Lark Pres. Mary Niederkruger w/Elmer and Board member George Eberhart w/Roberta as well as Board President Charles Wood and his wife, former Orindans now residing in Alhambra Valley.

A HOST OF DINNER PARTIES preceded the large turn-out at the Country Club. . . .Pot-luck affairs popular with one large group gathering at the Elbert Waynes and another neighborhood contingent assembling at the Alex McClains on Stanton Ave. Wes and Connie Smith called in a crowd for victuals, too.

In the Throng . . . the Cecil Cantrills, the Andrew Catheralls . . . Coming in from the Waynes were the Bill Brobecks, Earl Winklers, Andrew Hartanovs, Joan and Fred Fox, the John McClures, Nancy and Jim Davison there too, w/much happy talk about their recent vacation in Las Vegas and Palm Springs.

Oriole members and helpful hubbies taking tickets at the door, Eva and Norman Parker, Louise and J. H. Quinn.

ANOTHER SAT. NITE PARTY, a barbecue, whipped up by the wives of the Orinda Masons w/Mrs. Myron Hardy heading the committee for an eve. of good food and fun at the Orchard Nursery, courtesy of co-owner and Master Mason Mr. Stuart Wade.

Singing old favorites to a guitar accompaniment were the Ed Slussers, junior Hershel Bridwells, George Chases, Sherer Culvers, Dwight Dickinsons, Dorothy and Ed Turk. A lucky streak for both junior and senior E. A. Dawsons, who between them, walked off w/six (6) prizes!

The Robert Pridemores recently anniversaried at the Santa Barbara MIRAMAR returning home in time to greet Florida houseguest, the Frank Woodleys, here for a brief stay . . . Maurine Huddachek planed to Iowa last week, to be joined by Ray the latter part of the month. The Orinda pair will take in the Indianapolis Road Races, returning home in June.

Vivacious Viking visits here

Programme incl. such favorites as Ibsen's "Doll's House," Andersen's "Little Match Girl," Berglia from Bjornson, "Nedea" by Joan Anouilh and a recital of Norwegian poems. Tickets at Stevens Union or at door, 8:15. Tonight she plays the Vets. Aud, S.F.

French and Spanish Club members of Miramonte held "La Belle Mascarada" at the school Fri. nite . . . Costumes ranged from Hill-Billy to Hula, from Sailors to Shining Knights. Burly Willis walked off w:1st prize for the FUNNIEST as the "Littlest Angel". . . Most original and prettiest to Sheryl Studley as a sophisticated Career Girl in leopard pants, and Best Couples Award to Bob Tesman, a Caballero and Sue Spatz, a colorful clown!

Pretty Joan Corelis came as a French Maid, complete w/Fifi D'Orsay beauty-mark and a fancy feather duster! Miss Van Dam, language teacher, taught the Tango and Samba w/Babette Ambler and Pete Olsen winning recognition as prize dancers.

HOLIDAY FOR STRINGS takes place every Wed. nite, Orinda School Aud. in case you'd like to join the newly-formed Orinda String Ensemble. . . . On the violins, Laurie Rigor, Lois Flenner, Pat Whinnery, Bernease Lewis. . . . At the cellos, Betty Richards, Laura Hudd!

Local Architect Completes Plans

Plans and specifications for the new Contra Costa County Health Department offices have been completed and were approved last Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors.

Layouts and plans for the ultra modern three story building were drawn by Jack Buchter, of 61 Moraga Highway, and associates.

The new building, which will include ground floor parking and a concrete structure set on columns, will be located in Martinez.

Bids for building contracts will be received on May 22 at 11 a.m. by the Board of Supervisors. The contract, which is estimated at a cost of $350,000, will be awarded in June.

Army Son of Orinda Man Completes School

Maj. Clyde A. Coggins Jr., whose father lives at 19 Los Dedos, Orinda, recently was graduated from the Army's Arctic Indoctrination School in Alaska.

THIS IS Orchard Nursery's large new patio with its artistic surface of exposed aggregate. It will feature blooming plants and shrubs during each season of the year. Artistically landscaped by Ernest Wertheim, this will also be the setting for future chrysanthemum shows and other outdoor displays.

'New' Orchard Nursery Has Many Added Features

Gala festivities marked the Grand Opening of the completely remodeled, redecorated "new" Orchard Nursery—just "back the road apiece" from their former location midway between Orinda and Lafayette.

Ernest Wertheim was on hand to answer garden problems. Norvell Gillespie broadcast his program from the site. There were prizes and surprises for everyone, including free carousel rides for the kiddies.

Owners are Jack Schneider and Stewart Wade.

DESIGNED BY Landscape Architect Ernest Wertheim, the "new" Orchard Nursery is considered one of the most attractive and well-planned nurseries in the entire area. Some of the new and interesting features include the following:

The gift shop: Featuring planters, vases and other items related to displaying plants and flowers for added beauty. There is a distinctive selection of brass, copper and ceramics.

Display house for indoor plants: This will be a beautiful enclosed area under glass—the largest of its kind in the parts, according to the owners. Under this roof will be a complete selection of house plants.

FLORIST SECTION: This department will feature cut flowers and corsages, and is equipped to handle weddings, large parties, etc.

Large lath house area: Covers 12,000 square feet. Modern streamlined design gives a feeling of spaciousness.

Children's play area: A fenced in section adjacent to parking area, complete with sand box and play equipment, where the youngsters can romp while their parents shop at leisure.

Beautiful landscaping: Large new patio, with artistic surface of exposed aggregate will feature blooming plants and shrubs at each season of the year. This will also be the setting for future chrysanthemum shows and other outdoor displays of this nature.

Orinda Nursery To Have Guests

A full program is planned for the monthly meeting of the Orinda Nursery School Association to be held next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Orinda Community Church.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Mary Durkin, general consultant from the county's school office who will speak about the kindergarten curriculum and answer questions for the benefit of mothers whose youngsters will be entering school next fall.

Also on the agenda for this last regular meeting of the school year will be the election of officers introduced by the nominating committee at last month's meeting.

Special guests for the evening will be the candidates for the Orinda school board, Messrs. Charles Hunt, Carl Meurk, Louis Ambler, Ernest Starkman, William Koch and Herbert A. Waterman, each of whom will speak briefly.

Dance chairman, Mrs. Fenn Wilson, will report on plans for the school's annual benefit, the Spring Informal Dance to be held Saturday, May 26, at the Diablo Country Club. Dance tickets are now available through any member of the association or by calling ticket chairman Mrs. Clinton DeWitt at CLifford 4-5361.

Others working on the dance committee are Mesdames Robert Brorsen, invitations; Thomas Cullen, posters; Paul Fanning, decorations; Roger Olson, raffle, and Daryl iMtton, treasurer.

Hostesses for the informal gathering following the evening's business will be Mesdames C. Freeman Bishop, chairman; Harry Clemons, Thomas Howard, Sherburne Cook, Charles Lohse, James Wasley, John Mitchell, and Kenneth Mirov.

Letters to The Editor

PRAISE FOR STANLEY

Dear Editor:

The teachers of the Acalanes High School District are disappointed to learn of the impending retirement of district trustee M. H. Stanley from the high school board.

Individually and collectively they wish to thank him for his unselfish devotion of time and effort to local education.

For his long-time promotion of the education of the children of the community and his demonstrated interest in the welfare of the high school district, we feel he deserves the sincere appreciation and best wishes of everyone in the Acalanes District community.

ROAD-E-O

Dear Editor:

Your son and/or daughter is invited to enter the National Teen-Age-Road-e-o, which the Pleasant Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring.

The purpose of the Road-e-o is to alert our city's teen-agers to their responsibilities while driving. The Road-e-o is comprised of a written examination and a skill driving course, which — we hope — will improve their driving habits and attitudes and prove to others their ability to drive safely.

ENTRY BLANKS are available from Lyle Palmer, driving instructor at Pleasant Hill High School, or from George Denison at 100 Vivian Drive, Pleasant Hill.

The written examination will be given at Pleasant Hill High School and the skill course test on May 12 at Pleasant Hill High School. We will be very happy to have you attend the skill course tests.

THE WINNER of our local Teen-Age Road-e-o will be escorted by one of our Jaycee members to the State Finals in Sacramento on June 29 and 30.

The winner of the State Finals will then be awarded an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D. C., August 6-9. He will live in the Willard Hotel with the other contestants from the 48 states, Hawaii and the District of Columbia for four days. They will be given a series of written and driving tests, a psycho-physical test, as well as a personal interview, to determine the top three teen-age drivers in the country.

THREE THOUSAND dollars in scholarships will be awarded to these top three Road-e-o contestants.

If we can answer any additional questions about the Teen-Age Road-e-o please call George Denison, MU 5-3376.

R. Allan Disney,
Chairman, Publicity
Committee, Pleasant Hill
Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Education Code

Dear Editor,

It has recently come to our attention, that, for the first time, as a result of changes in the Education Code made by the Legislature in 1955, the members of the County Board of Education will be elected rather than appointed.

This election will occur in Contra Costa County on the 18th of May, and to our knowledge, little or no information about this important matter has been disseminated.

IN VIEW of the many changes in the law made by the legislature at its last session concerning the powers and duties of the County Boards of Education, it seems essential that the public be informed.

Upon a brief review of the Education Code, we find that the powers and duties of the County Board of Education extend to such important matters as budget review, school curriculum, school libraries and all important phases of school administration, and functioning.

For example, Section 313 of the Education Code reads: "No teacher's certificate shall be issued or renewed, nor shall any books or apparatus be adopted except by an affirmative vote of at least a mapority of the members of the board."

WE FEEL it is the responsibility of newspapers such as yours to bring full information about this matter to the people so that an informed electorate can go to the polls on the 1th of May.

In view of the need for informing the public, we, in Orinda, are planning a town meeting on May 10th at the Orinda Union School auditorium, where Mr. B. O. Wilson, County Superintendent of Schools, is going to speak on the details of the changes in the law relating to the County Board of Education and on its powers and responsibilities.

At the same time, we hope to have as many of the 28 candidates as possible speak briefly on their qualifications and interest in running. We would be happy to have anyone interested attend our meeting, and hope that other areas will do the same.

Mrs. Leonard Roth

Irving Kraemer Home Visited by Linnet Group

The home of Mrs. Irving Kraemer was a meeting place for the Linnet Auxiliary of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. Mrs. Claude McFee and Mrs. George Olmstead assisted Mrs. Kraemer as hostesses.

Mrs. N. Taliaferro presided at the pre-luncheon meeting which included lively discussion of Thrift Shop policy and reports from Center board members Mrs. Kraemer and Mrs. J. Lar Rieu.

Enthusiasm is running high in all auxiliary units as the starting date nears for construction of the new Therapy Center on Golf Links Road, Concord, according to Mrs. Taliaferro.

The Linnet Unit, which runs a Thrift Shop to benefit Center activities, holds monthly meetings in homes of the members.

Rare Music To Be Heard

A program of rarely heard Greek church music and folk song will be offered by the Bay Area Byzantine Chorale at St. Mary's College next Tuesday at 3:15 p.m. in Oliver Hall.

Directed by Perceles Phillips of San Lorenzo, the Chorale is a non-professional group formed especially for the presentation of early Byzantine chant, Greek ecclesiastical music and Greek folk song. The membership of the Chorale is from the three Greek Orthodox church choirs in the Bay Area.

Admission to the program, which is under the auspices of the Fine Arts Forum of St. Mary's College, is free. The public is invited.

Baldwin Subs For Joe Martin

The 2-hour stint was to allow the senior lawmaker's absence during a session. Baldwin is in his first term in Congress.

Homeland Association To Hold Business Meet

Ralph Pease, president of the association, announces that the regular business meeting will be interspersed with prizes, entertainmen and refreshments.

Doyle Announces Results of Teacher Study

Donald D. Doyle, chairman of the State Assembly's Education Committee, said this week that the results of a survey on teacher tenure were reviewed in Bakersfield recently.

The report included the following findings:

"APPROXIMATELY 12 per cent of California's teachers are employed in districts where the granting of tenure after three years of service is optional with the local school board.

"In the non-tenure districts the proportion of teachers not fully credentialed is more than three times the average for the state as a whole.

"Of teachers in the state who now have permanent tenure in their jobs, approximately 10 per cent previously had tenure elsewhere in California."

The following changes were favored by large numbers of those questioned by the committee:

Granting of two-year contracts during the probationary period to fully qualified teachers.

Frequent, objective evaluations of teaching erformance during the probationary period.

More frequent conferences between supervisors and teachers.

A STATEMENT of cause from the school district when a teacher's employment is termonated during the probationary period.

Reduction of the general probationary period to two years.

Reduction of pupil load of teachers through the greater use of student teachers where available, the provision of more clerical help for record keeping purposes, and the employment of playground supervisors for service during lunch and recess periods.

CLARENCE R. WALLACE

CLARENCE R. WALLACE GAINS PUBLIC FAVOR IN 2nd SUPERVISORIAL RACE

There are a few basic questions everyone is asking himself these days about the prospective candidates that have their hat in the ring for the all-important office of Supervisor.

As a group of citizens who are interested in good government, we want to make sure we elect a man who is capable of guiding and advising us wisely in our growth, and a man who will carry out the wishes and needs of the majority of the citizens of the district and not be swayed by a minority political group.

To find such a man, a group of local residents formed a group and named it "Citizens' Committee for Better Government." It could have just as easily been called "We the People" because frankly, it comprises you, your neighbor, and many other citizens with no political aspirations ...just a desire to see that the best possible qualified man gets the job. The citizens committee then invited all prospective candidates to appear before a representative interviewing committee. Many were interviewed and after much deliberation the unanimous choice was (retired) General Clarence R. Wallace.

Here are the reasons why Wallace was the unanimous choice. Wallace has no private enterprise, or business that would detract from devoting full time to the job of Supervisor. He has a fine military service record from actual field combat to Pentagon administration service. This more than qualifies him to be an equal or better match with the most experienced politicians he might come in contact with. He has the years of executive experience required in such a post. Lastly, we were looking for a man who had a proven good record of leadership. Clarence R. Wallace qualified on all counts.

Our candidate resides in Danville at 196 Estates Drive. He has lived there for the past five and one-half years. He is a graduate of Annapolis, class of 1919. He has served 30 years in the Marine Corps in a variety of posts. We think we are most fortunate to have among us a man of such qualifications.

Wallace's only desire in seeking election to this office is to see that the desire of the people is carried out and that it conforms with good, well thought out planning for the future. He will tell the people the facts. He will explain the pros and cons of questionable issues . . . from experience he will advise and then he will carry out the people's choice.

Wallace is without question a "people's choice candidate." For information about Wallace for Supervisor, please contact the Wallace headquarters at 3596 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Lafayette. Phone ATlantic 3-8101.

Southern Crossing Opposition's a Fact

In a letter to State Senator George Miller Jr., the Contra Costa County Commuters Association recently took exception to the senator's statement that he had noted "no major opposition" to the Southern Crossing from constituents in Contra Costa County.

The Commuters Association letter, signed by President George R. Cummings, reminds Miller that the association board has been of the opinion "that the opposition to the Southern Crossing by residents in this section of the county was quite well known."

The letter informs Miller that the commuter board voted unanimously April 10 to write him regarding its opposition to the Southern Crossing. "We feel that the primary efforts of all interested parties should be direcetd to resolving the 'Bay Area Rapid Transit' problem," the letter states.

We agree completely with the Commuters Association. It has seemed obvious to us that this county is vitally affected by whether or not a Southern Crossing is constructed — and therefore is extremely interested in the matter.

As we have pointed out in the past, a Southern Crossing would not serve our area at all. We cannot understand Senator Miller's statement, particularly since we have so often expressed ourselves against the Southern Crossing and in favor of a parallel bore (parallel to the present Broadway Low-Level Tunnel) or some similar plan.

The state senator's statement is also difficult to understand in view of the outstanding opposition to the Southern Crossing by the two assemblymen from Contra Costa County, Donald Doyle and S. C. Masterson.

Their fight against the impractical Southern Crossing was convincing proof, if proof were needed, that Contra Costa County opposition was definite and determined.

At the same time that the Commuters Association president wrote Miller, he wrote to Doyle, who is assemblyman from the 10th District, telling him that the commuter board had voted commendation for his opposition to the Southern Crossing.

With this sentiment we are in agreement. As has been noted, both Doyle and Masterson did an outstanding job in the fight against Southern Crossing, which has now become more impractical than ever by virtue of the necessity for a Bay Area rapid transit system.

What They Say

Swimmers Are All Set

If you're the optomistic sort, you can look up on almost any day and see the sun valiantly trying to break through the clouds. If you're the imaginative type, you can don those flimsy summer garbs, lie out in the yard with your eyes shut and a cool lemonade by your hand and get a clear picture of things to come this summer.

In such a position and so attired (except for a raincoat close by in case of sudden storm) your reporter this week wondered about the ol' swimmin' hole, and other oases where a sizzling body might get refreshed.

HE ASKED some of his neighbors about it, posing the question, "Summer will soon be here. Do you think there are enough good places for swimming near home?"

Here are some of the replies:

Mrs. Vincent J. Lombardo, Birdhaven Court, Lafayette, answered in the affirmative.

"We have very nice neighbors, and our children have friends with pools," she said. "We also go to Acalanes every once in a while, so it's not too much of a problem."

"I DON'T GO swimming very much," answered Mrs. Walter R. Reed, 3390 Orchard Valley Lane, Lafayette. But the swim scene looked pretty good to her anyway.

"It seems to me there are an awful lot of swimming places around," she said. "Or at least by what I read in The Sun."

Mrs. Wallace C. Riddell Jr., 41 Irving Lane, Orinda, thought that things have improved since the Sleepy Hollow swimming pool was built in Orinda. "And with all the private pools around," she continued, "there seem to be plenty of places to swim. My children are well taken care of."

Another person who saw no swimming problems was Clay H. Sorrick, 10 Hacienda Road, Orinda.

"I THINK there are plenty," he commented. "Our four boys go to the country club and to neighboring pools."

Mrs. Ben T. Henas Jr., of 311 Strand Avenue, Walnut Creek, admits that the situation could be improved, but "There are good neighborhood pools and professional instructors, which allow children to learn while young."

"Jan" is the Henas' three year-old girl, who mastered the fundamentals last summer.

The Las Lomas High School pool is a fine one, says Mrs. W.K. Pike of 2321 San Juan Avenue, Walnut Creek. Her boy, Ronald, age 13, plans to visit there this summer.

"I LIKE OCEAN SWIMMING," declared Mrs. Morton Swarth of 217 Powell Avenue, Pleasant Hill.

It reminds her of her native Rhode Island. The Swarth's three children are still too young to think about swimming much.

There are schools in the area which offer good lessons for beginners and advanced pupils, and this affords ample opportunity, according to Mrs. Walter Morri of 1112 Santa Lucia Drive, Pleasant Hill.

Otherwise, there is a lot of room for improvement, she added. Alan Morris, age 9, is learning, and two younger children are looking forward to the opportunity.

TRAFFIC REPORT

Dear Editor:

Maybe the new freeway is going to take care of everything — if we last that long! Here are some recent notations:

Monday, April 9: Buses running about 15 minutes late at 7:20 a.m. People stacked up all along the highway and at depots. Traffic just creeping. It is always unusually heavy on Monday. No cause to account for unusual delay was observed all the way from Lafayette to Oakland.

Monday afternoon, April 9, 5:30 p.m.: Traffic jam started at Lake Temescal; crept through the Tunel and halfway down the hill to Orinda. Here, on the north side of the road opposite the Kaiser Quarry road, were two Highway Patrol cars parked side by side. No activity could be observed. As soon as the traffic crept past, with each motorist slowing down to rubberneck, it sped up and the jam disappeared. (Traffic backed up by Lafayette signal lights far west of Charles Hill instead of just to Hidden Valley as usual.)

Tuesday, April 10, 7:20 a.m.: Traffic backed up to Walnut Creek. It didn't seem possible that the troublesome Lafayette signal lights could cause all this traffic jam. Sure enough, still jammed after passing the lights. At the weighing station, west of Lafayette, a Highway Patrol car was parked and an officer talking to people in another car, down to rubberneck. Then they sped up and the jam disappeared.

Another slowdown at the west portal of the Tunnel. Slow speed to road intersection between Lake Temescal and Broadway in Oakland. Two eastbound lanes blocked by a demolished car; accident victim lying in road, wrapped in blanket.

Half a dozen milk trucks and other cars parked at eastbound shoulder. Milk drivers helping victim and guiding traffic, one lane in each direction. No police or ambulance in sight. Only 15 minutes late reaching San Francisco.

Some unique ideas on commuting

Last week we discussed problems of commuting and possible short and long range solutions. Now—seven days have passed and I understand that my words of wisdom have not yet solved all the commuting troubles.

The column, however, brought in a visitor to the office, W. L. Fry of 1191 Pleasant Hill Circle. Bill is an engineer with Owens-Illinois Glass and works in Oakland. He commutes via a six-man ride group and is 100 per cent sold on the necessity of putting more people in each commuting car. Here are Bills arguments:

"Don't count on super-freeways and rapid transit systems to solve the long-range problems of commuters. The individual helicopter or flying manhole cover will replace the automobile within 10 years to an extent not realized by most people. Air space is unlimited for transportation routes at no cost, whereas real estate for roads is very limited and extremely costly.

"Right now busses and rapid transit just can't touch the automobile for economy . . . if two or more people are in each car," Bill points out.

Enough freeways and highways?

We have plenty of highways and freeways existing, under construction or on the drawing boards right now to handle twice the present bay area population without overcrowding them—providing you put more people in each car. The answer for both short and long range problems is just as obvious to all us commuters now as it was when you first suggested it years ago—PUT MORE PEOPLE INTO EACH CAR."

Bill continued, "My first thought (years ago when you first wrote about the problem) was to subsidize the ride pool, say 1-cent a mile-passenger (over one of course) and use road funds (gasoline tax) to pay for same. But when I finally put the pencil to this thought, I realized it was too costly.

"A friend of mine, George Fraser (not a commuter), knowing my disappointment, suggested the discipline approach which is so much more effective in training children and grownups but sort of 'went out' for awhile with so called modern education.

"If something is messing up civiliaztion, such as the single passenger cars on the commuters routes at rush hours, penalize them! In other words have a toll for these 'messups' and let the two or more passenger cars roll through free. A toll of 25 cents per single passenger car is suggested to force the formation of ride pools and at the same time help pay for needed highway improvements."

Answer to the opposition

Th commuter continued, "to quiet the major oil companies, who would no doubt immediately oppose this suggestion, point out that a car at home will use more gasoline than a car parked at work. Ask any ride pool member for verification of this fact. Some salesmen may have to commute singly some of the time, I will admit, but not most of the time.

"To quiet the major automobile manufacturers and road builders, who would also be opposed to this approach, point out that the current Federal and State freeway proposal, which is badly needed, plus maintenance of all future and existing highways will more than keep the legitimate auto manufacturers and highway builders busy for the rest of their lives.

"They will just have to switch partly to the air eventually for some of their future growth. The automotive and highway industries are going to be put in their proper place by air transportation like the railroads were by the car, bus and truck industry," Bill argues. "There is room for all. No one will be hurt.

Now hear this . . .

"The dangerous people to our society (regarding this crowded commuter route problem) are the people who think they are too important to humble themselves by being in a ride pool to help the common cause.

I would like to see all bay area newspapers simultaneously plug this basic approach of yours (two or more people in each car) with headlines 'TRAFFIC PROBLEM SOLUTION IS SIMPLE'," Fry declared.

"Let's have a one week trial to demonstrate to all of us how simple the solution really is. Courtesy to others by giving up some of our selfish desires to appear important, will automatically clear up the problem.

"But the 25-cent toll for the single passenger cars on all major commuter routes to catch the smart alecs, would have to be applied by desire of the majority to make this system work.

"It is not economically possible to build enough roads and freeways to handle single passenger cars. We will break ourselves financially trying. The long-haul rapid transit system is an even worse solution financially and convenience-wise than enough freeways for single passenger cars," Fry concluded.

Some background material

Well, there is a lot of food for thought in this argument. The Sun and Contra Costa County Commuters Association have conducted vigorous campaigns in past years promoting ride pools and use of Greyhound. The Sun printed lists of names of people wishing to share a ride—with a car or wanting a ride. We could not measure the actual results. Bill suggests that such a campaign is much more timely now with commuting conditions getting worse.

His other ideas are interesting, although in some cases questionable. I don't think it is possible to assess a 25-cent toll for single passenger cars during commute hours. And I do believe rapid transit is the key to a long-range solution. I agree that if two or three commuters will team up in one car, it certainly will offer substantial relief.

Well, Mr. Commuter, what do you think? Let us hear from you.

Letters to The Editor

CHILD SAFETY

Dear Editor:

In reference to your editorial entitled "Will Your Child Be Next?" I would like to develope tthe subject a little further.

We are completely aghast at the nonchalance of parents in our district. While mothers gather in groups calmly discussing "What I do to make my child behave," their children are dashing in front of oncoming cars, wheeling along their tricycles wildly down the hill, standing in the middle of the street, hands on hips, defying the driver to hit them, or if all else fails or unable to walk, creep, unseen, onto the pavement.

We are living here to give our children ample playroom in their yards and a tasts of good country living. But where are the children? In the streets.

Who is to blame? Certainly not the driver. Accidents will continue to occur until the parents are jolted out of their "Let the driver beware" attitude.

We are each responsible for the welfare of our own children and cannot pass this responsibility to others. Perhaps if we had more fear for our children and less fear of them more children would grow to maturity.

Here's to more inhibited youngsters and fewer indifferent parents.

Crankcase sludge accumulates much more rapidly in an automobile in winter than during summer because of vapor which forms on the cylinder walls.

About Our Happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

Country folk get Oriental swing

STARTING THINGS GOING in a big way was the ball last Saturday evening for sponsors — a gala preview. Country folk who were on the last were Mesdames and Monsieurs Claude Andreasen, Robert Bridges, M. E. Cory, Carl Daily, Stanley Dollar, Stanley Dollar Jr., Joseph Downs, Herman Eickmeyer, James Freeman, Miller Freeman, Haywood Gathings, Gerald Gray, Oliver Hamlin, Miles Hudson, Edgar Kaiser, McDonald Massie, Thomas McGuire, Oliver Meek, Walter Owen, Marion Plant, Chauncey Pond, John Reilly Jr., John Rogers, Marshall Shapiro, Dwight Skaggs, Paul Stafford, Thomas St. Hill, Raymond Tolles, Edward White and Irving Grundel.

ANOTHER COUNTRY EVENT was celebrated in the city. The Telephone Company was in a festive mood a recent night because the 500,000th phone had just been connected at the Concord home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner. Lawyer and Mrs. Turner of Walnut Creek were honored guests at a Claremont Hotel banquet for 500, and the piece de resistance of the evening was his phone call to his sister in Oklahoma without dialing — no operator gets into the act on this one to create a triangle situation where you can hear everyone involved but dare not admit it even unto yourself.

Incidentally, sister in Oklahoma didn't know the entire audience was listening so there was that anticipatory moment when everyone wondered what the lady on the other end might be tempted to say. Country folk on hand (actually only a handful of those were on hand but we aren't handy about handing out the complete dope on anything) were Mesdames and Monsieurs Arthur Scheu, Ambrose Macdonald, Fred Seulberger, John McFarland, Lewis Erb, Howard Greenhalgh, S. F. Gleb and Carl Kalbflash.

Goren's word is law

Back to the Orinda Branch — guess what they are up to now — duplicate bridge sessions on alternate Wednesdays. Lombardy Branch started things off by changing the life and times of the Contra Costa female with bridge lessons under the guidance of Hazel Files. Local femininity rose to the bait and the preamble for the average country conversation was "Goren says."

Now, for stimulating practice and competitive learning comes the duplicate game — one dollar a time and a prize for highest North-South and East-West. No mention of the booby so you don't have to hide under the piano.

PREVIOUS LADIES INVOLVED: Mesdames William Higgins, George Schenck, Dana Hamlin, James Sharp, Frank Hagarty, Clifford Mayne, Hi Hennings, Paul Demeter, Ambrose Macdonald, Lonnie Bee, Milton Selby, Paul Franklin, Stanley Bell, Glenn Gibbs, Herman Eickmeyer, Robert McCaughey, and, of course all Branch members.

And, Oh happy day, Lorita Baker Vallely will be back again next year, and WE, of all people, have been put in charge of the lecture series — so brace yourself, because we go on the theory we owe it to ourself and you to be well informed, and if we are going to do it we aren't going to let you get by without it — after all you might end up on a quiz program sometime and prefer the $64,000 to the pale blue Cadilac.

That is all.

Jerrold will graduate from the University of California in June with a civil engineering degree. He is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity and of the American Society of Civil Engineers, of which he is a past treasurer.

Jerrold's brother, John, will graduate in June from McGill University in Montreal, Canada, with a degree in medicine. Jerrold is the son of Mrs. Edmund Jussen, of San Marino, and of Maynard Turner, of Alhambra. His sister, Mrs. A. V. Fullaway, lives in Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Upon his graduation from Cal this June, the benedict-elect will enter the U. S. Navy for a two year tour of duty.

College Girls On Committees

Three Walnut Creek girls, students at the College of Holy Names are on committees preparing for Mothers' Reception-Tea, to be held May 12.

They are Misses Ann Rowland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rowland, 30 Jeanette Court; Claudia Mattioda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mattioda, 81 Bradley Avenue, and Angela Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Griffith Sr., 15 Lakewood Road, Walnut Creek.

Place will be on the shores of Lake Merritt, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Women Voters In Study of Government

Meetings of the League of Women Voters in May will continue the study of Contra Costa County government under the direction of Mrs. John Selley, Walnut Creek, and her committee, it was announced.

Unit meetings will be held in the following homes: Tuesday, at 8 p.m., Mrs. David K. Harvell, 715 Glenside Circle, Lafayette; Wednesday, at 8 p.m., Mrs. David Doyle, 3175 Old Tunnel Road, Lafayette; and Thursday, at 1:30 p.m., Mrs. F. W. Bastian, 3385 La Caminita, Lafayette.

The League of Women Voters is a national non-partisan organization which was established in 1920 to encourage citizen participation in government. Meetings are open to the public.

Walnut Branch to Use Orient Theme

Mrs. Ernest E. Rowland of Walnut Creek, chairman of the forthcoming "Festival of Flowers and Fashions," reports that she and other members of Walnut Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay, these days are steeped in Oriental lore.

Anticipating the "Oriental Holiday" theme that will dominate this 11th annual hospital benefit scheduled for May 8 in the gardens of the Howard homes in Walnut Creek, their members speak, for instance, of the "torii" they are constructing.

These are red lacquered gateways that will provide entry-way for guests and for fashion models as they promenade through the lawns.

MEMBERS ARE carrying about "Shockikubai." These are bamboo tubs filled with bamboo shoots, pine boughs and blossoms. Used as table arrangements they will depict in miniature the Japanese New Year decorations which are always quaint and traditional.

Members also are busy spraying the "kanenonaruki," lacquered willow branches which will bear the good omens of treasure ships, money boxes and fish. These decorative items traditionally are hung in front of Japanese homes to bring good fortune to the house.

Also, members are experimenting with "Taka Shimoda," coiffure arrangements including flowers and brilliant pendants, which they will don with other oriental attire as they serve their guests who will be seated at tables throughout the lawns and gardens. The affair begins with dessert at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Alexander D. Dindsay, decorations chairman, has her hands full, as one might suspect.

However, she has good assistance from Mrs. Ralph D. Hanna, and both have consulted Mrs. Edward Counter Jr., in order to provide decor that is authentic.

Table settings at this event are always prepared by the Branch's sustaining members who every year help the actives in staging the important event. It usually attracts a crowd of around 1500. Mrs. Edward Counter, wife of Walnut Creek's mayor, returned early this year from the Orient, bringing with her many of the ideas for decorations.

THEIR EXECUTION falls to the Mesdames A. B. Camp, Joseph E. Clifford, John L. Cooley, Carlton Hawes, Roy Heffner, John Irving, Allen G. Jones, Louis Kamp, Alois Kremser, Frank L. Maker, Clarence E. Peters, Eva Stewart, Fred B. Taylor, George E. Van Voorhis, and Harold Willoughby.

The roster of models includes the Mesdames Hadley Bacon, H. B. Turman Jr., Robert Warner, Richard Martin, Wendel Luhr, Robert Field, Leonard Hooper, John McFarland, William Robinson, David Fink, Karl Wente, Philip Muscheid, L. C. Wright, William McGuire, Robert Loane, Harland Gelderman, Calvin Hagstrom, Edgar Sawyer, Jack Dana, Marshall De Bisschop, Clark Anderson, Donald MacVean, Ruth Stowe, James MacDonald and Jack Darragh.

Also named are the Misses Judy Moore, Sandra Stevens, Carol Sawyer, Jane Seulberger, Carol Hackett and Patty Foley.

Children, too, have always had their roles at this fashion showing, and this year is no exception, as Kathy Desch, Stephanie Beeson, Robin Dana, Patty Beaton, Kitty and Matt Guichard, Christy and Bobbie Sawyer, Blythe Rowley, Dick Boler, Nancy Beaton, Debbie and Donnie Peterson will display small-fry apparel.

AN INNOVATION at the event last year was the introduction of men in modeling roles. This proved a popular feature and much fun, so this year will see the Messieurs Jack Eriksson, Tom Morrish, Robert Clough, John Osmundsen, Edgar Sawyer and Robert Graves taking time away from their work to participate in this gala hospital benefit.

Tickets are $2 and may be obtained from Mrs. Francis T. Cornish, 1307 Josephine Street, Berkeley, (LAndscape 5-8126); in Orinda, from Mrs. J. Standish Massie, 44 Estabueno, (DRake 6-4479); in Lafayette from Mrs. Richard Martin, 3798 Mosswood Drive (ATlantic 3-2898); and in Walnut Creek from Mrs. Sanford Terry, who is the ticket chairman and resides at 1270 Elmwood Drive (YEllowstone 4-4052); or through any Branch member.

Among the early reservations are those of Mesdames Henry Peshon, George Slavens, Raymond Beeson, Harry Andrews, L. H. McPherson and Mel Harris. Mrs. Norman Buckhart has invited guests from Oakland and Berkeley to a pre-fashion show luncheon again this year, as she has done for a number of years.

SERVING ON THE committee are Mesdames James C. McGeehon and Bruce R. Lee, programs; William F. Anderson and Gustav A. Spilker, fashions; A. Carl Helmholz, tea; Warren A. Ronneberg and Robert Bruen Jr., properties; Philip L. Schiedermayer, publicity; D. Charles Williams, finance; Bruce R. Lee, reservations; John M. Floyd, music, and Mel Nielsen, prizes.

Members assisting in other ways are Mesdames J. Allen Madison, Fred D. Allasia, Kermit J. Lincoln, Robert C. Haring, Richard D. Emory, Donald E. Kientz and Alden T. Mackay.

ORIENTAL APPAREL, including "taka shimoda" coiffure arrangements, and "torii," red lacquered gateways, will add authentic Japanese touches to the Festival of Fashions and Flowers to be held Tuesday at the Howard gardens in Walnut Creek by Walnut Branch as a benefit for Childrens' Hospital of the East Bay. Shown are Mrs. A. D. Lindsay (left) and Mrs. Robert Haring. "Taffy," the German shepherd dog, adds a "gemutlicht" touch to an otherwise Oriental picture.—Ted Gurney photo

Newlyweds End Honeymoon Trip

At home at 123 Hawthorne Court, Pleasant Hill, are the newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Manuel George Guido, where they will be receiving their family and friends after this weekend.

The newlyweds were married in the chapel of the First Congregational Church of Berkeley April 14.

The bride, the former Miss Barbara Olive Nickel, wore a silk crystalline dress, with Empire lines and an imported lace bodice; her fingertip veil of illusion and lace was attached to a crown of heirloom lace, and was part of her mother's veil; and she carried a bouquet of baby rosebuds and orchids. She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's sister, Miss Marilyn Nickel, served as maid of honor; and bridesmaids were Mrs. Marilyn Johnson Richardson, and Miss Barbara Breon. They wore ballerina length dresses designed similiar to the bride's, but were in aqua. The maid of honor carried talisman roses, and the secondary attendants carried yellow eclipse rosebuds.

James Wood of Orinda served as the benedict's best man, and James Selby of San Francisco and Peter McCoy of Oakland ushered.

The bride's mother wore a champagne lace trimmed dress, white accessories, and an orchid. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. M. J. Guido, chose a rosewood lace model with matching accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Nickel of Berkeley, the bride was a member of the class of '53 at the University of California, and is presently employed in its purchasing department.

The benedict, an Oakland High graduate, served in the U. S. Navy Seabees, and has been with the Orinda Fire Department for the past seven years.

Following the wedding reception which took place at the Berkeley Women's City Club where the bridal couple received their friends, they left for a short Southern California honeymoon.

Rams Beat Knights in 10-Inning Game

Pleasant Hill's Fast Nine Edges Las Lomas, 8-6

Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill were set to play ball at Walnut Creek Tuesday but the game was transferred to Acalanes at the last moment when someone forgot to turn off the hose in watering the field and a miniature flood resulted.

It went 10 innings before the Rams won, 8-6.

It looked like a runaway in the second inning when Pleasant Hill posted 5 runs on 4 hits and 2 errors, but Joe Sibley, on the mound for the Knights, tightened his belt and shut the visitors out for the next six innings while his teammates collected one in the second, one in the third and one in the sixth, to add to 2 they had tallied in the opening frame and to force the game into extra innings.

THE SCORE was tied at 5-all at the end of eight innings of play, and the Rams scored in the top of the ninth.

It came about when the lead-off batter, pitcher Ray Johansen, was on via an error by Third Baseman Terry Yeager, and he scored after reaching third with two away when Second Baseman Bill Nixon singled.

Jim McMillin, centerfield, ended the inning when Sibley struck him out.

IN THEIR TURN at bat, Las Lomas came back to knot the count 6-6 when Shortstop Vern Kenley lead off with a single and scored with two away when Yeager singled.

The inning ended with Sibley grounding out, third to first.

The issue was decided in the 10th, when the Rams scored twice on three errors.

THIRD BASEMAN Jack Ulrich was on when a ground ball went between the legs of Second Baseman Ron Fifield, who came in cold to replace Gary Coleman, who had been hit by a pitched ball in the previous inning.

First Baseman Bill Locatelli was on via an error by Shortstop Vern Kenley and wound up on third with Ulrich scoring when Centerfielder Doug Potter overthrew third.

Locatelli scored on the next play when Kenley booted a ball off the bat of Ray Johansen.

THAT ENDED the scoring for the Rams, and also for the Knights, as they went down in apple pie order in the bottom of the 10th, to give the Rams an 8-6 win.

Joe Sibley went the route on the mound for the losers, striking out 8 while giving up 9 hits, and showed excellent control, yielding but one walk. Tom Toland was on the receiving end.

For the Rams it was Locatelli for five and two-third innings before being relieved by Ray Johnasen.

Locatelli struck out three and gave up eight hits and three walks

Johansen struck out eight while giving up six hits and one base on balls, along with one hit batter.

Chuck Exner caught the first three frames, with Leon Lewis taking over in the fourth.

In errors, Las Lomas led 5 to 1.

Swim, Track Titles Will Be Decided

It's really a big week ahead in prep sports as swimming hits the county finals this weekend and track decides the prep champs next week, with other activities having a full schedule on tap.

The schedule for the week is as follows:

TODAY — Acalanes, Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill tangle in a three way meet at Acalanes at 3:15 p.m.

The Dons are favorites in the Bee division, while in the varsity it looks to be between the Dons and the Knights. Give the edge to Acalanes on depth.

In baseball the Acalanes frosh play Miramonte at Acalanes in a 3:30 p.m. game. A tossup.

TOMORROW — The spotlight turns on the swimmers, with the league championship to be decided in the Diablo pool at Concord. Trials start at 9 a.m.

The Dons and Diablo to battle it out in the varsity division. Acalanes has first place winners, Diablo depth.

Albany looks to be the dark horse. Tab the Dons in a close meet.

In the Bees, Diablo, Acalanes and Albany look to be the power. Close here.

MONDAY — It's golf in league play, with Pleasant Hill and Acalanes trading swings at the Orinda Country Club, starting at 4 p.m. The Dons, undefeated, rate the favorite role.

TUESDAY — In tennis and baseball it's Acalanes the favorite at Las Lomas; Antioch and Pittsburg in a tossup at Pittsburg, while Pleasant Hill figures to topple Pacificia at Concord.

Diablo draws the bye.

All games and matches, 4 p.m.

WEDNESDAY — In swimming, Pleasant Hill and Las Lomas are tentatively scheduled to meet at 3:30 in the Las Lomas pool. Pick the Knights in both divisions.

County track trials to qualify for the league finals next Friday take place at Diablo starting at 3:15 p.m.

THURSDAY — It's baseball and tennis, with Pleasant Hill and Acalanes at Acalanes.

The Dons won a first-round meeting and will be out to repeat, but it won't be easy.

Diablo racks Pacifica at Concord, while Pittsburg rates the edge over Las Lomas at Walnut Creek. Antioch takes the bye.

All games and matches start at 4 p.m.

NEXT FRIDAY — It's track time in a big way as league champions will be decided in the meet at Concord starting at 3:15 p.m.

It looks to be a race between Diablo and Pittsburg — give Pitt the edge in the varsity and the win in the Bees.

Gymnastics find Pleasant Hill in a 6 p.m. meet with Sequoia at Mt. Diablo High. Sequoia, on the basis of depth and experience.

Swimming has a big day for those who qualify in the county meet as they enter the North Coast Section trials at Santa Clara, starting at 3 p.m.

SATURDAY, MAY 12 — Pleasant Hill and Mt. Diablo enter the North Coast "B" gymnastics meet at James Lick High School in San Francisco. Time: 10 a.m.

For swimming, it's the North Coast finals at Santa Clara, starting at 9 a.m.

BACK SEAT FOR KIDS

When youngsters are riding in the car, the safest place for them is in the back seat sitting down. In the event of a quick stop they're less apt to be injured.

All Swim Firsts Except Diving Nabbed by Dons

In the Sectional Swim Meet at Las Lomas last Saturday the Acalanes Dons, paced by George Hanison's national record-breaking performance in the 150-yard medley, copped every first place but diving — but in the final scoring wound up in second place, as Diablo had 77 points to 75 for Acalanes. Las Lomas had 42½ and Pleasant Hill 28½.

The Don Varsity qualified six men in individual events and two relays for the league finals at Diablo High's pool tomorrow, starting at 9 a.m.

In winning the 50-yard freestyle event, Corky Kiesel set a new county mark with a time of :24.5.

HARRISON set a new national mark in the 150-yard medley with 1:31.7, as opposed to the old record of 1:31.9.

Bill Freeman, Val Geissler and Ed Klass took first places in the 200-yard freestyle, 100-yard backstroke and 100-yard freestyle, respectively.

In the Bee meet, the Don Babes wound up in first place with 77 points, while Las Lomas had 69 and Mt. Dablo 32.

BILL SHURTLEFF, the Dons' 75-yard individual medley man, broke the record in the heat on Friday and then came through with an even better mark when he was clocked in :47.5 for the distance in the finals on Saturday.

Morgan Jellet copped first in the 50-yard freestyle race, while Herman Jonas copped the top honors in the 50-yard breast stroke, and Robert Hunt took the diving to round out the Acalanes Bee first place winnings.

In all, the Bees qualified eight men in individual events for tomorrow's all-league meet at Diablo.

OIL CAPACITY

The average 1955 automobile has a smaller crankcase capacity for oil than the average 1941 automobile.

Plans Roll For Little League Ball

A baseball meeting of parents and other interested adults was held at Lafayette School April 23, and things took a definite form when prospective managers and coaches met Tuesday at Acalanes High School.

Better than 200 boys have signed up for baseball, and tentative plans call for providing facilities and teams for all boys interested in playing the small diamond version of baseball.

More than 100 candidates turned out under the direction of Al Nelson last Sunday. The workout took place at Acalanes High School.

PRESENT PLANS call for the use of a 60-foot diamond for the smaller boys and a 70-foot diamond for the older group.

The program plans to take care of all boys attending grammar school.

On the basis of turnout, tentative plans call for eight teams in the major league group (11-14) and eight teams in the minor league section (8-11). Each team will have a roster of 12 to 15 players.

ONE DIAMOND is planned for Stanley School and another will begin to take place this Sunday, when a group of volunteer workers swing into action starting at 1 p.m.

The diamond has been laid out, infield dirt has been delivered and materials for the backstop have been ordered, with the framework scheduled to get under way this week and next.

Heading the league is Gordon McNulty, with Al Nelson in charge of the major league unit.

Coaches will be assigned to teams and will be announced in the near future.

Present tentative plans call for actual play to get under way sometime the last week in May.

BRAKE FLUID

Here's a good habit to get into: when you have your car lubricated each 1,000 miles, have the service man check the brake fluid level. It only takes a minute and it's one of the most important service points to have checked regularly.

George Harrison Will Take Part In Keo Nakama

George Harrison, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison of 7 Camino Lenada, Orinda, and a junior at Acalanes High School, has been invited to participate in the Keo Nakama Swim Meet at Honolulu the end of June.

The annual Keo Nakama meet features outstanding swimmers of the United States.

George, a star on the Acalanes swim team, made the world's rating in 1955 for the 400-meter individual medley when, at the age of 16, he was first in that event. Also, he was fifth in the 200-meter butterfly, ninth in the 100-meter backstroke, and seventh in the 200-meter freestyle.

FIGHT FUNGUS ON FLOWERS Constantly, I receive distress calls regarding Mildew and Rust on Roses, Delphiniums, and other flowers as well as Black Spot on Roses. These are all fungus diseases. I recommend FUNGUSOL as a spray because FUNGUSOL not only prevents these diseases but, used regularly, it continues to hold them in check all summer. And that isn't all. FUNGUSOL kills Aphis on Thrips at the same time.

IN THE SOIL However, fungus diseases entrench themselves in the soil so treatment of the soil is important, too. Using TRACE TONE two or three times through the growing season will help a lot. TRACE TONE also inspires your Roses and all flowers to finer blooms and foliage; counteracts soil alkalinity and naturally fights fungus diseases underground by means of its mineral content.

Diamond Chatter...

Junior Baseball Underway In Walnut Creek Sunday!

Sorry we missed getting the column in last week, but things had to be worked on, and problems straightened out.

Next Sunday at 1:30 p.m., opening day activities will get underway for Walnut Creek's Youth Baseball Leagues.

Opening teams will draw out of a hat for the Coast League, Western and Eastern National Leagues.

The mayor of Walnut Creek will throw out the first ball, and without too much delay the umpire will call, "play ball."

NOT ENOUGH credit can be given to all the men who have taken over teams and the training of boys in this program!

Considering the large number of boys signed, and the lack of diamonds, things are shaping up. To date, only the city park and Las Lomas fields are suitable for play, and unless more people realize the need for playing areas, next year's program will be forced to limit the players by an ability criteria.

THE SITUATION is more critical than most people realize.

The men who are trying to arrange practice sessions and practice games already have had trouble in getting the time and space. There is no other program in this town that takes care of so many young fellows.

Concord, Hayward and surrounding areas seem to be far ahead of us in diamonds, but do not have the number of boys playing that we have.

Softball, kid's leagues, Babe Ruth leagues, American Legion, church leagues and others have to have space and soon all programs will suffer.

LAFAYETTE HAD its first baseball signup last Saturday, and reports from Gord McNulty, Al Nelson and Manzic Wilson have been good. Also getting the help of Mr. Mattson, Acalanes coach, it looks like a bright future.

A new diamond will be put in as soon as Matt gets the necessary information on measurements and so forth.

Many fine gentlemen offered their services as team coach last Saturday, and teams will be formed as soon as possible.

The schedules will be complete this week, and games will be played at the city park every evening Monday through Sunday, starting at 7 p.m. week days, and 6 p.m., on weekends in order to play all games. Even some Saturday morning games may have to be played.

ANY BOY WHO was not assigned to a team either showed a lack of interest or didn't show up for assigning and the Rec Department has all slips and a waiting list for interested boys.

Some boys did not bring in slips so no record of them is available.

No more relays can be made, and any problems over signing up can be talked over with Bob Maxey and the League Committees.

THESE COMMITTEES have been busy many hours, and if anyone wants to sit in they can. Its for the kids, and thats the way it's supposed to be.

Let's play ball, gang, and enjoy a full summer of baseball in Walnut Creek!

Two Dons Will Go to Europe

Two Acalanes students have been selected in competitive elimination to go ahead this summer under the direction of the American Field Service student exchange program.

Smed Ambler will live with a French family in Marseilles, while Allen Shapiro is destined to spend his time in Germany, exact location not yet determined.

Both students are in their junior year and are expected to return to Acalanes High next year to tell fellow Dons about the people, customs and attitudes encountered in the countries they will visit.

Students from England, Sweden and Italy (one from each) are currently attending Acalanes as part of the AFS exchange program.

Mrs. Hammil Will Speak to Social Group in South

Invited to speak at the California Conference of Social Welfare in Long Beach Tuesday, is Mrs. Robert Hammill of Walnut Creek, vice president of the Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek area. Also attending the meeting, are Mrs. Arnold F. Schultz of Alamo, president of the bureau, Mrs. Joseph C. Wilson of Orinda, former president, and Mrs. Frank Dickey, Orinda resident and Junior League placement chairman for Diablo Valley.

Mrs. Hammill will speak on the general history of the Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek area. First known as the Community Service Bureau, and co-sponsored by the Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce and the Junior League of Oakland, the bureau was initiated in February, 1955.

The purpose of the Volunteer Bureau is to supply local agencies with volunteers, and give citizens the opportunity to work for their community.

Since 1955, The Volunteer Bureau has referred more than 400 volunteers, and served 30 agencies. In December, 1955, the Community Service Bureau became the Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek area, and was recognized as the newest member of the National Association of Volunteer Bureaus.

Through the help of the Junior League of Oakland, The Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce and it's many enthusiastic volunteers, the bureau has made great strides in it's program of social service.

PETER WOLFE of Pleasant Hill High School goes through his paces off the board at Las Lomas High School Saturday. Finmen from Pleasant Hill High are rated among the best and are building in all sections for next year's squad.

Don Divotmen Continue Wins

The Don golfers continue to maintain their undefeated record.

Within the past two weeks they have defeated the University of California frosh by 15-3.

On April 23 the Don divot-diggers defeated Antioch, 5-1, at Orinda Country Club.

In a three-way meet at Tilden Golf Course last Friday, the Dons won with 16 points against Piedmont with 11 points and Richmond with 9 points.

The Acalanes golf team members are shooting rather sensational scores. In the two 18-hole matches with the California frosh and Piedmont-Richmond, the following boys participated and the scores indicated are for the two matches, respectively:

Guide Dogs for Blind Campaign Will Continue

One hundred volunteers from Contra Costa County working for support of Guide Dogs for the Blind will continue a telephone campaign through the end of May, according to Mrs. James F. Bailey of Walnut Creek, chairman of the Contra Costa drive.

Teams is 10 towns in the county seek funds to help underwrite the training of more man-dog teams by the philanthropic organization.

Of the nearly 200 blind in Contra Costa, eight have been given the means to independence of movement through a guide dog, according to Mrs. Bailey.

The complete cost of breeding and training one animal and teaching its blind master how to handle it is $1500. There is no charge to the blind, she added.

In this area, a graduate of the four-week orientation course provided by the school is Mrs. Berenice La Flamme Anderson of Walnut Creek, a teacher of mathematics and geography at the California School for the Blind in Berkeley, with "Holly," a German Shepherd.

In Contra Costa County, 24 families have participated in the foster home program for Guide Dogs for the Blind, which involves raising the young kennel bred pups until they are old enough to be returned to the school for formal guide dog training.

Acalanes Folk Dancers in 'April Showers'

April Showers was the theme of the Acalanes Folk Dance group's monthly party at the Danville Veterans Hall, April 14.

Open umbrellas hanging upside down were suspended from wires which were strung across the hall. The programs when open, displayed a complete blank, other than a notation on the bottom of "April Fool!"

Callers for the evening were Ted Darger from Martinez and Glenn and Reva Ward of El Cerrito.

Preceding a short business meeting, refreshments were served at tables decorated with spring flowers, by a committee with Marie and Hal MacDonald and Frank and Sally EnEarl of Walnut Creek and Karen and George Carlisle of Pleasant Hill.

PROGRESS

Sixty years ago the number of motor vehicles registered in the U.S. totaled 12. Last year's total was over 61 million.

Program Slated By Candidate

A program of efficiency in spending the tax dollar, harmony in the county government, acceptance equally of industrial and residential growth, development of facilities for education and recreation of young people, and direct contact between the supervisor and his electors was put forth this week by Mrs. Eunice Koller of Crockett, candidate for Supervisor in the Second District.

Mrs. Koller spent an active week of campaigning, including several short talks before various county organizations, and personal contact with many voters.

"I will not become obligated to any group, individual or organization," Mrs. Koller said. "I will not be influenced by localized interest either during my campaign or in office if I am elected. There will be no solicited endorsements."

"I am, and will be, available," she continued, "to hear the sentiments and ambitions of such individuals or groups for the welfare of the county or their areas. I will attempt to evaluate such ideas for the good of the majority. I will defend the right of each such individual or group to express his views, with all the energy and such talent I possess."

Christian Science

"Man's true selfhood as the perfect child of God" will be the theme set forth at the Churches of Christ, Scientist of Orinda and Walnut Creek.

The Orinda church is located at 22 Orinda Highway, and the Walnut Creek church at 1347 Locust Street.

Readings from the King James Vesion of the Bible, and correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will comprise the lesson-sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man."

Included in selections to be read from Science and Health is the following (304:14): "The perfect man—governed by God, his perfect Principle—is sinless and eternal."

Dons Prepare 'Musance' Event

Acalanes students, members of the school's modern dance group, mixed chorus, A Capella choir and band have started rehearsals for the annual "Musance," to be shown in the Don gym the evening of May 18.

The modern dance group, directed by Miss Millicent Hamburger, will portray the story of the "Salem Incident," an impresionist account of the era of witchcraft in Puritan New England.

Sertoma Club Is Reorganized; New Committees

Reorganization of the Sertoma Club, a service group for the Lafayette-Walnut Creek area, is under way today on both a local and district basis, according to George Walker, president of the local organization.

The former local Sertoma district now becomes a region, with more new districts to be added.

Six committees have been named to replace the original 12 committee setup, with each committee headed by a member of the board of directors. Chairman of the new posts as announced by Walker are Bill Lorton, sponsorship; Bob Senoff, membership; Ralph Reid, program.

Ollie Morgan, fellowship; Ray Remond, publicity and Jay Curtis, Sertoma liason with the national group. Reid was named to the board of directors as a replacement for Norman Cloutier who has resigned.

County Juvenile Department Officer Bela Clark spoke to members at a recent luncheon meeting at Stan's Brick House.

New Capwell Site 'Modern'

Completion of construction on Capwell's new 230,000 square foot, $1,750,000 Service Building at West Grand Avenue and Poplar Street, Oakland, has been announced by Mr. John S. Hamilton, Capwell's General Manager.

The modern two-story structure swings into full operation this week. Construction started March 1955. Enginering and construction were handled by the William J. Moran Company of Alhambra, California.

THE BUILDING boasts unique up-to-the-minute features as well as all-over functional design.

First on the West Coast is the Barrett electronic, automatic, opertorless tractor now in use at the Capwell Service Building. This "machine without a man" follows an invisible guide line around the first level of the new building, responding to radio waves through a "sniffer box" on the tractor itself. Attached to the unit can be a long line of merchandise trucks.

Located one block from the new Eastshore Freeway, and a mile and a half from Capwell's Oakland store, the building replaces three structures that have been used as Capwell service buildings.

Dramateurs to Hold Auditions

The Dramateurs will hold auditions for their summer productions on Monday from 8:30 until 10:30 p.m. at the Fellowship Hall in the Orinda Community Center

Selection of two plays from the four under consideration— "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker," "The Voice of the Turtle," "The Tender Trap" and "The Moon is Blue"—will depend on the auditions.

Anyone interested in taking part in a production—either acting or working on the production staff—is invited to come to tryouts and sign up. Since one of the plays has nine roles for junior actors (in a cast of twenty), boys and girls in the age group from 7½ to 19 years are especitlly invited to come.

Director Carl Rasmussen requests that people who have not appeared in any previous production come prepared with material for an audition.

Detection of Alcohol Breath Now Scientific

Highway Patrol Units in Contra Costa County are now equipped with Intoximeter kits to give roadside tests to drivers suspected of being under the influence of alcohol, it was announced.

The kits will allow CHP officers to take an immediate test of the suspect's condition instead of the former method of taking the driver to a hospital for a blood test by a doctor. In the intervening hour or two, officers said, "the driver sobered up."

The Intoximeter is a scientific portable aid that will "protect the innocent and convict the guilty," according to Captain R. R. Magill of the Arnold Industrial Highway station.

The Intoximeter does not react to food odors such as onions or garlic. It is also valuable in determining whether the suspect driver is a diabetic or otherwise in need of medical care, Magill said.

Magill added that the adoption of the Intoximeter by county authorities "is a tremendous advance toward the solution of the drinking driver problem, which has doubled in the past year, in our area."

In the test the driver blows up a balloon. The breath in the balloon is allowed to escape through a chemical solution, which gives an immediate close determination of the percentage of alcohol in the suspect's blood stream.

An additional analysis of the chemical reaction, Magill said, will be made in the laboratory by Concord pathologist, Dr. William Bogart.

The kit is sealed in a foot-high cylinder. Including laboratory analysis, the cost to the county is $11 per test.

Diablo Weavers Hear Teacher At King Home

Twenty-two members of the Diablo Weavers Guild met at the home of Mrs. Dale King, 1176 Upper Happy Valley, Lafayette, for a luncheon meeting, April 26.

Speaker was Walter Houle teacher of weaving at the McKinley School in Berkeley, who presented many examples and instructions of twill treddlings for the four-harness loom.

Mrs. Emma Flanders gave a report on the guild entry in the Occupational Therapy Tea May 15. The tea is to be held at the Diablo Country Club. Tickets may be purchased by phoning Mrs. Ronald Lightfood at YE 4-7566.

Reports on the weaving entries in the Diablo Spring Art Show, scheduled for May 18, 19 and 20 in Walnut Creek, were made by Mrs. Alma Phillips and Mrs. Claire Pfeiffer. Exhibits and demonstrations are planned for Aver's and Penney's windows.

Several members brought samples of their craft, handwoven at their own studios. Included were place mats by Verna Flinn, upholstery fabric by Claire Pfeiffer, cocktail dress and informal skirt by Alberta Benson, and drapes by Lin Nickerson.

The May meeting of the guild will be held at the Walnut Creek home of Miss Alice Evans on Thursday, May 24.

Visiting at the April meeting was Mrs. Margaret Goodman of Lafayette.

Members present were the Mesdames Albetra Benson of Martinez; Susan Campbell, Jean Evers and Noble James of Concord.

Julia Elick, Dorothy Holmes, Dale King (hostess), Ruth Schwerin, Marie Stengel, Margaret Warnke, Susie Warren of Lafayette; Estelle Gore, Margaret Moore of Orinda; Mardeline Frincke of Alameda; Alice Evans, Emma Flanders, Verna Flinn, Claire Pfeiffer and Alma Phillips of Walnut Creek; and Helen Carmel, Alica Daniels and Lin Nickerson of Alamo.

Assist County Accident Survey

Acting as coordinators for the Diablo Valley accident survey being made this week by the Contra Costa County Health Department, are two groups of women active in volunteer work, it was reported.

Under the direction of Mrs. Charles L. Smith, Orinda, president of the local chapter, several members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha will deliver accident report forms to doctors, dentists, druggists, fire departments and police stations in the Orinda, Lafayette an Walnut Creek area.

The president of the Alamo Mothers' club, Mrs. Charles Lurmann of Walnut Creek, and other members will cover the Danville-Alamo area for the county wide survey.

The purpose is to determine the success of accident prevention efforts in Contra Costa County. Report forms will be completed and returned to the Contra Costa Health Department.

The women of Epsilon Sigma Alpha and the Alamo Mothers' club, as well as many individual volunteers, are giving their time to community service through the Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek area. The bureau, located at 1640 Main Street, YE 4-0424, has referred more than 400 volunteers since February of 1955. Thirty agencies are served through the bureau's active volunteer program.

New Forms for Library User

To speedup supplying requested books to readers in the 32 branch and station libraries in the Contra Costa County Library system, new printed request forms are now in use, according to County Librarian Bertha D. Hellum.

When a library patron wishes a book not currently on the shelf of a local library, he fills out a request form having interleaved carbons.

One of the carbon copies may be used as a postal to notify the patron when his book is ready. A five cent charge is made for this notification service, to defray cost of printing and mailing the form.

If a requested book is not in the local library's stock, the request is forwarded to county library headquarters in the Hall of Records, Martinez, where the book is located and transferred, purchased, or possibly borrowed from the California State Library.

Construction Under Way For New Therapy Center

Construction of the new buildings for Mt. Diablo Therapy Center on a four-acre site on Golf Links Road, Concord, is now in progress. It is expected that the new facilities for treatment of the physically handicapped will be ready for use during October, according to Charles A. Wood, Jr., president of the board of directors.

The new Center, of modern architecture, was designed by Harry Y. Nakahara, Martinez architect. The general contract, in the amount of $142,000, is held by E. G. Romley Construction Company of Walnut Creek. Financing of the project was handled through the Bank of America, Walnut Creek.

THE MAIN building will house completely equipped physical and occupational therapy departments which will include eleven treatment rooms where physically handcapped persons will be given treatment as prescribed by their respective physicians, including exercises for activities of daily living.

Patients are accepted only upon referral by a physician, but all such patients are admitted, regardless of ablity to pay.

Facilities are also provided for the staff psychologist and social case worker. In addition there will be a construction room for doctors whose patients are undergoing treatment, administrative offices and reception room, and a staff lunch room.

SPECIALLY DESIGNED rooms will be provided for speech therapy and hearing evaluation, the only facilities of this kind available in this area. At the rear of the main building there will be a large rehabilitation gymnasium and exercise room for patients.

The sheltered workshop and prevocational unit where physically handicapped individuals are trained for gainful employment, will be located in a separate building connected with the main structure. An adjoining outdoor area, will be landscapped and equipped for open-air exercise of patients.

Construction of the new center is being assisted substantially through contributions by material supply houses, labor groups and interested individuals. These contributions, Wood stated, are greatly appreciated by the Board of Directors, the Center's Auxiliaries and by other groups interested in the Center's activities.

Walnut Creek Aggregates Company, Calaveras Cement Co., Permanente Cement Co., and the H. J. Kaiser Co., sand and gravel divisions, have agreed to donate enough materials for approximately 140 yards of five and one half sack readymix concrete toward the construction of the new building.

WALNUT CREEK AGGREGATES Company has donated the facilities of its plant and of all its equipment. The employees have donated all of their time necessary to deliver the readymix materials to the job site.

Through the efforts of Wm. H. Mattos, Pleasant Hill contractor, and Frank Mattos, much of the material, labor and equipment for installation of the sanitary and water facilities are being provided without cost to the Center.

Contributors to these facilities include: Sun Valley Lumber Company, Lafayette, septic tank; Pacific Coast Aggregates, Concord, drain rock; Pacific Clay Products, sewer pipe and drain tile.

DIAMOND K, LAFAYETTE, cement, sand and felt; Conduit Construction Company, Concord, trenching for water and gas lines; Frank Beach, Concord, and L. & N Excavators, trenching for tank and drain field.

Bert and Frank Bertagnolli, Joe Lucas, Manuel Lucas and Cleverdon Company, Lafayette, trucking of drain rock; Louis Daniels, Lafayette, loader for rock; James Plumbing and Lafayette Plumbing, Lafayette, labor on gas and water lines.

D. K. Young, Walnut Creek, laying of sewer pipe; Sam S. Brear, Danville, water for test holes; Don Judd, Walnut Creek, drilling of test holes and Grinnell Company, Oakland, water pipe.

M. H. Stanley Resigns Acalanes Trustee Post

Announcing his impending resignation as a high school trustee, M. H. Stanley said recently, "After 17 years continuous service on the Board of Trustees of the Acalanes High School District, I have decided to resign my seat as trustee and not stand for re-election so that I may devote more of my time to enjoying my retirement and my family."

Stanley is the last original member of the high school board, having become a trustee in 1939 when the Acalanes High School District was first organized.

William B. Freeman, present president of the board, commended Stanley for "his selfless service to the community and the fine contribution to local education Stanley's active membership on the board had helped create."

Recently chosen as "Man of the Year for 1955" in Lafayette, Stanley served 25 years on the Lafayette Elementary District Board, and on boards of the Lafayette Fire District and Pleasant Hill Water District.

At the same time, Stanley announced that he will support Will Hall of 1363 Reliez Valley Road, for the position.

"I feel Mr. Hall will make a very good trustee for the District if elected. I am glad to give him any support I can and advise my friends to vote for him so if possible he will be elected to the office," he said.

Larmer Tells Water Needs

"Contra Costa County's present and future are dependent upon guarantees of adequate water. We must press to the limit steps now being taken to guarantee this assurance. We can't sit back and let an all state water program develop without knowing exactly where Contra Costa stands."

Edward M. Larmer of Lafayette, candidate for Second District supervisor, thus today stressed his position on water problems, saying that he draws from ten years of experience in various organizations with which he has been associated.

"Our shore line and Southern Contra Costa must be guaranteed adequate water," Larmer declared. "We can't sit back and watch the scramble for supplies without protecting ourselves.

"Southern Contra Costa County now is written into a legislative authorized four county canal study bill. This project considers a canal in the Livermore area, from which the vast south county region could draw supply," he continued.

Jack Hageman of Lafayette, chairman of the Larmer Campaign Committee, said in a press statement that "Edward M. Larmer's experience, topped by his two terms of service as a grand juror, eminently fit him for the supervisorship of the Second District."

Hageman said that Larmer served on the 1954 Contra Costa County grand jury, and previous to moving to Lafayette 10 years ago served on the Alameda County grand jury.

He said that Larmer is making an active personal campaign "carrying to individual voters a realistic program that will bring the Second District what it deserves with standup representation of its interests."

Nielsen Opens Lafayette Hq

Mel Nielsen, candidate for Supervisor of District 2, Contra Costa County, opened his new office last weekend at 3581 Mt. Diablo Blvd. in the center of Lafayette.

He christened the office with a meeting of some 50 workers from each area in the district who had missed the campaign program held two weeks ago at the Stanley School.

Nielsen recalled that he was first to announce officially his candidacy and first by several days to file his nomination papers in Martinez.

Laurence P. Corbett of Walnut Creek, who served as chairman of the meeting, stated that Nielsen has demonstrated in his civic and elective offices an ability to carry out the program he outlines. "Campaign promises are one thing," Corbett stated; "seeing to it that they are accomplished is quite another.

"In the elective office of Lafayette fire commissioner and as head of numerous community endeavors, Mel Nielsen has proved that campaign statements and objectives can be transformed into full accomplishment."

Nielsen stated that he had suggested that district boundaries be realigned so that citizens would get fair and complete representation. "I am not at this time recommending a charter form of government," Nielsen said, "because I think an expert study of the matter should be made.

The function of a supervisor in such a program should be to outline all the available facts, to seek expert recommendation from a specialist in govermental organization in the light of efficiency and economy, and to submit such material to the citizens for decision. I intend to do just that."

Nielsen headuarters at 3581 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Lafayette, will be officially open from 12 to 5, Monday through Friday, and volunteers will staff the office on weekday mornings and on Saturday. Mrs. John Lindberg of Lafayette is chairman of the volunteers and E. N. Clark of Orinda is treasurer of Nielsen's campaign fund.

Pedder Charges 'Obstructionism'

Jack Pedder, candidate for Republican Senator from Contra Costa County, lashed out at the incumbent senator Monday night over station KECC where both were heard on a forum.

Pedder called for his own election as a member of a Republican Congressional, State Senatorial and Assembly team to better represent Contra Costa County in the State legislature.

Pedder pointed to "the incumbent's long record of obstructionism to the aims and progress of Governor Knight, and to the senator's losing battle on the Weinberger bill".

Pedder further stated that "the incumbent does not have the best interests of Contra Costa at heart" and put the finger on the incumbent for his vote for the Southern Crossing. "Which," Pedder said, "is costly, inefficient and only for the benefit of other counties and would mean continued higher tolls for Contra Costa commuters."

According to Pedder, the cost of the Southern Crossing would pay half the cost of the Rapid Transit System which would link Concord, Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Richmond to Oakland and San Francisco.

Pedder, filed only on the Republican ballot, is a Lafayette businessman and former chairman of the Republican County Committee.

Lee, Gillan For Baldwin

The committee to re-elect John Baldwin to Congress announced this week that Bruce Lee of Walnut Creek will head a Democrats for Baldwin committee in his community and that John H. Gillan will serve as head of a Pleasant Hill Committee.

The announcement was made by Harmon Howard of Walnut Creek, Baldwin's campaign manager.

"I am backing John Baldwin again because I believe he is giving us thorough and conscientious representation," said Lee.

Jack Gillan served in the Army ordinance department in 1942 and then went into the air force from 1943 to 1946, serving with the occupation forces in Japan and in the South Pacific.

He is a member of the Sierra Club and makes his home at 218 Poshard Drive. Gillan is an engineer, a member of the Diablo Vista Parents Club, "Y" Indian Guides and is a salesman for J. T. Ryerson & Son, Inc.

Bruce Lee, a Walnut Creek merchant, was a Navy lieutenant during the war, where he served in the European theater. He is a director of the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce, an active member of the Hillcrest Congregational Church in Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek Elks Lodge and Rotary Club.

Government Hit by Zion

"A general modernization of county government is overdue," William R. Zion, candidate for Supervisor from the second district, declared yesterday.

"The job of every county department has grown and changed in recent years. But the way these departments are run remains much the same as before. Although some specific weaknesses are already known, the best approach to the problem is for the county to bring in expert assistance for an over-all study of every function.

"In other counties, smaller than Contra Costa, this kind of survey has brought about savings as high as $400,000 annually, to say nothing of improved service to the public," Zion stated.

"MEANWHILE, many county activities have been started without any clear idea of exactly what they were supposed to accomplish for the citizens, or at what tax cost. We need a review of these items and a specific policy statement to the departments' heads and to the public as to what services will be provided and at what cost level," the candidate added.

Zion, former research director for the county taxpayers association, pointed out that the county has made some of the improvements needed, including establishment of the Department of Public Works and the County Administrator's office.

HE ASSERTED, however, that the County Administator has not been given adequate authority and staff to prepare the annual $25,000,000 budget or to coordinate the planning of the several million dollars worth of new county facilities that are constructed each year.

"Aside from an understandable resistance to change, there is no reason why our county government cannot be improved now," Zion concluded.

New County Post

The County Board of Supervisors on April 24, authorized creation of one additional Agricultural Inspector's post, effective June 1.

This position was requested by Arthur L. Seeley, agricultural commissioner for the Contra Costa County Department of Agriculture, in order to be able to enforce the new Farm Bureau sponsored Poultry, Turkey and Rabbit Meat Law which becomes effective July 1.

Issue Campaign Vowed by Koch

Russell Koch, Democratic candidate for the 10th Assembly District stated; "There are far too many unsolved problems for us to sit back and count our blessings. Most of the people in our district, like myself, have young, growing families, small homes and large mortgages.

"We are vitally concerned and affected by what is done in government at all levels."

"There is too much to be done now and in the years ahead to waste time with the usual political nonsense about one man being responsible for all progress in the community. We all know that good programs and solutions to complex problems are the work of many hardworking and unsung men and women.

"If any one person wants to claim sole credit I will dispute but I will not worry about it. It is far more important to let the voters know your position on the unsolved problems and on present controversial issues.

"That is why I intend to wage a campaign on issues and avoid personalities and vague generalities."

Koch spoke before a campaign workshop meeting of the Federation of Democratic Clubs of Contra Costa County held at the Monument Bowl in Pleasant Hill.
